New Chamber chairman

HONITON'S popular Chamber of Commerce chairman, Colin Wright, has decided to step down from the role with his deputy Tony McCollum set to take over.

Mr Wright has been a member of the chamber for 12 years and chairman for eight. He is stepping down from the position to spend more time with his family.

At the Annual General Meeting in March, he was awarded the title of honorary president for his services to the group.

Mr Wright said: "Being elected as chairman at an AGM all those years ago came as a complete surprise and really was a roller coaster learning curve."

"I'd like to thank a great team around me, the blow was softened by the help of the committee and I shall always be extremely grateful for their support over many years."

He continued: "My time as chairman has been a fantastic experience and I have met so many amiable people – both locally and in businesses – all over the country."

"It's amazing how many chambers experience the same sort of problems – car parking, high rates and planning applications, all topped off with little or no money in the kitty to promote themselves or their towns."

"We have been so lucky in the support that we have received both from our local chamber and East Devon District Council."

Mr Wright said one of the highlights of his time in charge was last year's Christmas light display: "It was extremely rewarding to discuss a proposal at committee meeting and finally see it come to a satisfactory conclusion some time later."

Under Mr Wright, the chamber has assisted with planning applications and rate reviews and has tried to keep most of the shops in town occupied.

Mr Wright concluded by saying: "I am looking forward to continuing my association with the chamber as president and am honoured to be invited to take up this post."

"I will give our new chairman, Tony McCollum, all the support he needs whilst being able to take more time out to spend with the family and undertake new projects at home."

Mandy Newman, owner of Beauchamp House and, alongside incoming chairman Tony McCollum, helped to organise the fantastic Christmas lights last year said he would be missed.

She said: "It is with great sadness that we see Colin Wright stepping down as chairman of the Honiton Chamber of Commerce."

"He has worked tirelessly for the good of the business community – well beyond the normal commitment of a chairman and will be a hard act to follow. He will be greatly missed."

Bob Francis, a Honiton Lion and regular attendee of the Honiton chamber breakfast meetings, added: "Honiton and District Lions Club can only praise Colin for the work he has done for the town and local businesses, especially in linking them with the Lions Club assisting the local community whenever the need arose. The Lions wish Colin well in to the future at a more leisurely pace."

Guildhall finances under the spotlight

AXMINSTER Guildhall management has investigated financial discrepancies, but says it will not be possible to recover the losses.

The losses are revealed in the annual Axminster Guildhall Management Committee report by chairman Tony Fells.

The report was presented during Axminster's Annual Parish Meeting, and stated: "Regrettably, in December 2015 we became aware that there were negative discrepancies between hire charges due and monies received. This has impinged on the 2014/15 accounts and, to a far lesser extent, will do so in the 2015/16 accounts."

"The matter has been fully investigated, however, it has not been possible to establish exactly how these have arisen and it is not possible to take further action to recover the losses."

"The new manager, Steve Moody, has been tasked with ensuring that similar discrepancies are not possible in the future."

Mr Fells, report also revealed that the hall's two fundraisers last year made losses.

The report explained: "Our income has not been as robust as the previous year."

"This has been compounded by the fact that our two fundraising events, the ice rink – which all acknowledged was a good community event – and the Dream Boys event, both failed to live up to expectations and made losses."

The sums involved were not revealed in the report, but in December it was reported that Axminster Guildhall Management Committee would need a town council grant of about £5,000.

Reduced bar takings was given as the reason, and town clerk Hilary Kirkcaldie said at the time that the council used to make an annual grant to Axminster Guildhall Management Committee to cover running costs.

From the editor's chair Poacher turns gamekeeper?

WE had to raise a smile in the office when we read that Seaton Mayor, former journalist Tony Woodman, had censured one of his councillors for writing a letter to this newspaper.

Our minds went back to the mayor's early days as a councillor. He was not adverse to rattling a few cages and Pulman's View was criticised for encouraging him to do so. As if we would?

Having served as First Citizen in my home town many years ago, I have some sympathy with my former newspaper colleague. It is extremely difficult to maintain your principles as a journalist holding public figures to account but also protecting the many confidential items that end up on the council chairman's desk.

For that reason, I only served one year as mayor and left the council soon after. I have been encouraged to stand for council again on a number of occasions but have always maintained the view that I could not carry out my duties as boss of this newspaper group and serve the public in a right and proper fashion.

Just as well really because you are never going to win popularity awards as a newspaper editor and almost certainly I would not get elected. Councillor Woodman retired from journalism some time ago and ran a business in Seaton where he was very vociferous about the lack of support which came from the council chamber for the town's trading community.

If I recall he was pretty well against the new Seaton Jurassic Centre, advocating that it should be in a more central position. As the town's First Citizen, his position has changed somewhat, welcoming the facility and accepting it will bring thousands of people to Seaton every year.

Councillor Woodman is no longer a Seaton trader and has been able to concentrate his efforts on promoting the town at every opportunity. His elevation to the top council job came as a surprise to many. But Tony has reined in his views which made him a bit of a rebel in the Town Hall.

It will soon be time to elect the Seaton mayor for the coming year and it will be interesting to see if Cllr Woodman seeks re-election.

SEATON

'Pollution' letter upsets the mayor

SEATON mayor Tony Woodman issued a stern warning after a town councillor's letter to this newspaper allegedly breached protocol and "embarrassed" the council.

The councillor involved, Martin Shaw, has accepted the order not to write letters in his capacity as a councillor, but feels he should have a right to do so.

It started when Councillor Shaw, who was co-opted in September last year, wrote a letter following a story in this paper about pollution of a brook near his house in Old Beer Road, Seaton.

He took issue with an Environment Agency statement and claimed the pollution came from a specific farm, signing the letter as Councillor Martin Shaw.

A company based at the farm denied the allegation on the following week's letter page and the farmer involved, Robert Reed, wrote directly to Seaton Town Council.

Mr Reed has sent Pulman's View a copy of the letter he sent to Seaton Town Council on March 16th.

He wrote: "I wish to ask councillors if the allegations made against Gatcombe Farm by Cllr Martin Shaw are shared by the council as a whole?"

"May I ask that before writing potentially libellous letters to the paper, the council or individual councillors get their facts right."

Mr Reed's letter was not read out at a meeting of the council on March 21st, and the questions he asked were not referred to. But the mayor, Cllr Woodman, who chaired the meeting, was clearly unhappy with his fellow councillor's letter.

He sternly said: "One letter caused some embarrassment to the council. It has been pointed out before that we don't write letters to the press as councillors. I would implore councillors not to make any contact with the press as councillors."

Cllr Shaw was not present at the meeting, nor was he named by the mayor as the councillor who wrote the letter. But when asked for comment by Pulman's View, Cllr Shaw said: "Residents expect councillors to use their positions to speak out about issues like the repeated pollution of our stream. I think it is wrong that I am unable to comment as a councillor."

SOUTH SOMERSET End to booze project after eight years

A POSITIVE change of attitude and falling numbers are the reasons for the closure of The Zero Project, a South Somerset initiative combatting binge drinking among the young.

The Zero Project came in the shape of alcohol-free club nights at various venues in the district and was a partnership between South Somerset District Council, Avon and Somerset Constabulary, Somerset County Council, Inspired2Achieve, Club Neo and the Street Pastors.

The aim was to reduce alcohol-related anti-social behaviour and binge drinking throughout South Somerset by providing under 18 nightclub events.

The Zero Project was formally closed down on March 31st after eight years in operation.

A spokesperson said: "Over the project's eight years, the local and national picture of alcohol use by young people has improved considerably, which formed the main reason for the decision to close."

Shirley Courage, acting Zero Project manager, said before the closure: "During the period the events have been running, young people's attitudes to 'having to drink alcohol to attend and enjoy an event' have certainly changed."

"In the early days there were young people attending who failed the alcohol test, blowing red, because they had consumed alcohol prior to the event."

"More recently, no-one attending events have consumed alcohol and young people have stopped trying to 'smuggle' in alcohol as they are aware that bag searches and possible voluntary searches will take place."

At its peak in 2010, The Zero Project was attracting an average of 462 youngsters to each event. This number fell to just 212 in 2015.

The sharp fall in numbers and the drop in income to help fund future events was also a reason for the decision taken by the project board.

Shirley added: "The project board have regrettably come to this decision."

"However, we are proud of the work by all organisations involved as all partners were committed over the eight years to the project and right up to the end."

"A total of 13,565 young people passed through Zero's doors attending a total of 42 events and four young promoters attained an accreditation award, but more than that, the best practice of The Zero Project will continue to be promoted by the project's partners through their ongoing work."

PCC hustings event to take place at the Methodist Hall

CANDIDATES on the campaign trail for the Devon and Cornwall Police and Crime Commissioner role have agreed to take part in a hustings organised by Honiton Senior Voice (HSV) on April 18th at the Methodist Hall.

Outgoing Commissioner Tony Hogg claimed the 2012 Honiton hustings, a meeting at which candidates in an election have the chance to address potential voters directly, was one of the best he had attended and in a repeat visit he praised HSV for its efforts.

Though elected as the Conservative candidate he campaigned against Government cost cutting and led a deputation to Downing Street in defence of rural police forces.

HSV chairperson June Brown said: "I am pleased that candidates for all four political parties and independents have accepted our invitations to speak and agreed that Honiton residents will be able to question them face to face."

The candidates for PCC are: Gareth Derrick (Labour), a former Royal Naval commander; Alison Hernandez (Conservative), chief of staff for Torbay MP Kevin Foster; William Morris (independent) secretary of Next Century Foundation; Jonathan Smith (UKIP) a retired police constable; Richard Younger-Ross (Liberal Democrat), former Lib Dem MP; Bob Spencer (independent) a former acting assistant chief constable for Devon and Cornwall police.

Mr Smith and Mr Younger-Ross have both pledged that if elected they will seek to abolish the role.

Tony Simpson said: "Since we organised the last successful PCC hustings, Honiton [police station] has lost its front desk and our police have come under severe financial pressure.

"However, the 'Fair Funding' campaign which we supported resulted in averting the Government's further proposed reduction of £15 million from the budget of Devon and Cornwall police.

"We also met the PCC and with others we called for improvements in 101 call time; this seems to have improved. All are welcome and we expect a lively event. We urge those attending to submit questions in advance."

Doors open at Methodist Hall at 1.30pm for refreshments, followed by the hustings at 2pm on April 18th.

Please submit questions to Elaine Mumford by calling 01404 44316 or email honitonseniorvoice@outlook.com

Police called to Manor Crescent incident

POLICE were called to a residential property on Manor Crescent, Honiton, at around 3.30pm on Sunday, March 20th, following reports of a person on the property being drunk and verbally abusive.

Police attended and one man was taken into police custody.

A 41-year-old man received a police caution in connection with this incident.

Weather curtails fundraiser : Devon prepares for Syrian refugees

ROUGH seas over Easter forced Joel Seward and Helen Derry, pictured below, to postpone their fundraising kayak challenge from Seaton to Weymouth.

The challenge is in aid of Asthma UK and in memory of Ryan Walker, who died from an asthma attack in the summer of 2014 at the age of 24.

Joel said: "We had to postpone the kayaking challenge due to the weather; sea conditions were moderate to rough. We plan to try again nearer to the cricket season as the conditions should improve. We have currently raised £1,200 for Asthma UK and we still hope to raise £2,000 with the extra time we have got."

Ryan, from Seaton, was well known in East Devon cricketer circles having played for both Seaton and Axminster.

At the time of his death he was a player with Seaton Cricket Club and a coach at Axminster Cricket Club. Joel and Ryan were teammates at Axminster from the ages of 11-18.

Joel currently plays for Seaton Cricket Club, and Helen is heavily involved with the club.

New lighting for East Devon roads

STREETLIGHTS along main roads in Axminster, Sidmouth and Honiton will be upgraded to lower wattage LED standard.

The upgrade is part of a countywide £10.2 million scheme involving more than 24,000 lights.

It is paid for by what is known as Challenge Funding, which Devon County Council received following a successful bid to the Department for Transport. About 5,000 columns will also be replaced as part of the project.

The replacement of streetlights, mostly on main A and B roads got underway earlier this year in Barnstaple, where around 5,200 lights and 1,100 columns are being replaced, and Kingskerswell, where 750 lanterns and 100 columns are being upgraded.

The scheme will now extend across other parts of the county from April.

Councillor Stuart Hughes, Devon County Council Cabinet Member for Highway Management, said: "The vast majority of the columns and lanterns that are earmarked for upgrading are on our A and B road network.

"The modern LED technology will improve the quality of lighting while operating on a much lower wattage than the existing streetlights.

"The scheme aims to reduce carbon emissions, energy consumption and energy costs.

"Based on current prices it's estimated that the scheme will save the county council around £1 million per year in energy costs."

The Challenge Fund project will take two years to be fully implemented. Installation work is being carried out by SSE Contracting.

DEVON County Council have reiterated their desire to help settle refugees, after Somerset County Council announced it was expecting to welcome its first families to the county in the coming weeks.

A Devon County Council spokesman said: "We're continuing to talk to the Home Office to ensure that we play our part in helping refugees.

"Our current focus in Devon will be on resettlement of refugees through the Syrian Vulnerable Persons Scheme, through the course of this parliament. We are working with partners across Devon who are committed to making this happen."

East Devon District Council also confirmed that they have the space to settle several refugee families and are just waiting for the go ahead from the county council.

An East Devon spokesman said: "East Devon has signaled its willingness to assist with the national resettlement effort and we have been working closely with Devon County Council and other Devon districts to prepare.

"We recently agreed with Devon County Council that we can settle a small number of Syrian refugees, consistent with our earlier commitment. Award for inspirational mum

A MOTHER from Honiton has been given a special award for inspiring more than 1,000 children over the last year.

Alice Simpson runs the Creation Station in Honiton and received her award at the national franchise conference in February.

The Creation Station Inspiring Imaginations conference is held annually in Birmingham and attracts franchises from around the UK.

The Creation Station provides arts and crafts classes and parties for children.

Alice, who runs two classes in Honiton and Exmouth, said: "I am so delighted with this award. I have been running my business for a year and it is the best job I have ever had."

"The families that come to the classes make them so special, working with children and their parents/carers is fantastically rewarding. I look forward to every class."

"Each child is creative in their

Alice's classes are held weekly at The Youth Centre, Honiton. For more information on classes and parties contact alicesimpson@thecreationstation.co.uk or call 07834 992319.

MP and mayor support Guide Dogs fundraiser

■ Honiton mayor Cllr Caroline Kolek enjoyed homemade cake with local guide dogs owners at a recent event

LOCAL MP Neil Parish and Honiton mayor Councillor Caroline Kolek met with local guide dog owners at a coffee morning for the Guide Dogs charity.

The Honiton branch held its successful event at the Mackarness Hall, raising much needed funds.

Apart from the fundraising, the Honiton group was recruiting volunteers to join the group to assist with activities in the town and the surrounding areas.

Guide Dogs is a national charity supporting people who are blind and partially sighted. It receives no government funding and relies heavily on the activities of its local volunteers to raise money, which is used to train and support guide dogs throughout their working life.

■ Members of Exeter University's medical department helped Honiton College students get to grips with special equipment at the 'X-Men in White' event last month

Students play science detectives

STUDENTS from Honiton Community College played science sleuths for the day when they were given a hands-on experience of life as a scientist at an event organised by Exeter University.

The X-Men in White, group led by Professor Lorna Harries and Dr John Chilton, invited pupils from across Devon, Dorset and Somerset to help them solve a mystery akin to something seen on TV.

The children tackled a scenario in which scandal had erupted on Devon's sporting scene as previously unknown athletes smashed all known records, and the students had to discover which of the three supervillains was guilty of rigging Devon's premier sporting event by doping runners with a mutant yeast.

Professor Lorna Harries, one of the organisers of the event which aims to make science more accessible, said: "This is a fun, interactive way to gain a real understanding of some complex scientific concepts."

"The pupils work alongside real scientists, and we want to bust some myths that we're all fuddy-duddy men in white coats."

Co-organiser Dr John Chilton added: "It's critical that we motivate the next generation of Devon-bred scientists to consider a career in a stimulating and innovative subject at the cutting-edge of discovery."

Mel Barker, Head of Science at Honiton Community College, said: "Our pupils get an immense amount out of the first-hand experience of working alongside experts in their scientific fields."

"It takes it a step beyond what we can do in our labs at school and inspires them to consider science as a career by getting them to think about where they could be in a few years' time."

Ebony, a Year Nine pupil at Honiton Community College, said: "This event really shows you what you could do if you choose science as a career. It's very inspiring."

Offwell pupils' eggsperiment

■ THE oldest children at Offwell School rounded off their science week with an 'eggsciting egg dropping eggsperiment'. The challenge was to protect a raw egg sufficiently well to see if it would break when dropped off the highest point of St Mary's Church tower. Mr Thomas said he was amazed when all the eggs survived unbroken and school governors who attended the event added they were impressed by the care and attention the children had put into protecting their eggs, many of which were given names.

Yacht club welcomes inspirational Sally

MEMBERS of Axe Yacht Club (AYC) were excited to welcome adventurer, writer and presenter Sally Kettle for their final Friday evening talk of the winter season.

More than 80 members were enthralled by Sally's knowledgeable and often-humorous account of rough seas, wild storms, harsh living and encounters with sharks as she twice took part in the Atlantic Rowing Race.

On the first attempt, when illness beset her teammate, her mother joined her on board the seven-metre boat instead.

Despite neither having rowed before, they completed the 3,000 miles from the Canary Islands to Barbados in 105 days, becoming the first mother and daughter pair to row across any ocean.

Sally subsequently attempted the challenge again as the skipper of the all-girl Rowgirls team in 2005/06 – the same year that the Beer boys Justin Adkin, Robert Adkin, Martin Adkin and James Green took line honours.

That year the hurricane season lingered a little longer than usual causing many of the competitors to capsize, but the girls made it to the West Indies.

AYC Commodore Steve Biddle said: "We were very pleased that such an inspirational and motivational speaker took the time to come and share her experiences with us.

"To be the first woman to row the Atlantic Ocean twice from east to west despite having had no previous rowing or sea-going experience is truly remarkable.

"She has raised more than £250,000 for charity and is a proud supporter of the charity ShelterBox, which provides emergency shelter and vital supplies to support communities around the world overwhelmed by disaster and humanitarian crisis."

Following the talk, Sally took questions from club members over a buffet supper, prepared by Hazel Bartlett, Patsy Kingdon, Shelagh Mercer, Trish Needham and Dawn Shepherd.

■ THE children at Seaton Primary School welcomed Ambrose Bear just before their Easter break. Ambrose is the mascot of Devon Air Ambulance Trust (DAAT), and proved to be a very popular visitor. The visit started with a presentation of the charity's work, given during an assembly by a DAAT staff member. The importance of fundraising was stressed, and the children played their part by staging a helicopter colouring competition. After assembly, the children had the chance to go out and have photos taken with Ambrose. Amy Catley, whose daughter attends the school, has been involved with fundraising for DAAT through the Grizzly, so helped to organise the visit. Ambrose is pictured above enjoying the children's welcome and, below, with pupil Isabelle

YEAR Two pupils at Seaton Primary School have not only been learning all about the Great Fire of London that took place in 1666 – but also re-enacted it.

Lucy Wilkinson of Seaton Primary School said: “We had a parent involvement morning when the parents came into school to help their children make a building from 1666, including the Pudding Lane bakery where the fire started.

“On the last day of term – Thursday, March 24th – we invited the parents back in and the whole school watched the fire spread across London.”

The re-enactment has been a regular fixture on the school’s calendar over the last few years.

Easter draw

■ THE Easter draw at Townsend House Medical Centre in Seaton had 10 winners and raised £70 for Seaton Memory Café.

Members of the centre’s patient participation group recently chose the memory café as its charity of the year, the Easter draw being the first in a series of fundraisers.

Practice manager Elly Potter said: “We will be collating all the events and money raised and then present it to the memory café at the end of the year.”

The draw was one the last tasks for long-serving receptionist Kath Thurgood, who retired on the same day of the draw – March 24th – after 42 years of service.

A ROYAL Navy Sea King Mk4 helicopter farewell tour could be clearly seen from Seaton and Beer. The fleet, based at RNAS Yeovilton, was decommissioned at the end of March.

On March 21st a farewell tour of the South and South West took place, starting and finishing at RNAS Yeovilton.

A formation of helicopters travelled as far east as Portsmouth before following the southcoast westward to Plymouth before heading for Chivenor, Bristol and back to RNAS Yeovilton.

FASCINATING: Sealife through time

Attractions prove big draw at new Seaton Jurassic centre

THE rockpool experience and the time ship have proved extremely popular at the newly-opened Seaton Jurassic.

The first two days (Easter Saturday and Sunday) saw more than 1,000 people visit the centre.

Manager Mike Ruiter said: "On the Saturday we had 563 people through the doors, and 614 on the Sunday."

He said the rockpool experience and the time ship had proved to be firm favourites, and that feedback overall was very good.

Not only locals took the opportunity to visit the brand new facility.

Mr Ruiter said people had come from places like London, Birmingham, Bristol and Exeter, for example.

Seaton Jurassic is owned by East Devon District Council and operated by Devon Wildlife trust.

The success continued after the weekend and, speaking on Wednesday March 30th, Devon Wildlife Trust's Stephen Hussey said: "We've been exceptionally busy over the first four days of opening."

"We estimate that around 2,500 people have visited, more than our predictions."

"We've also been getting some very good feedback."

New committee saves club

DEVONSHIRE ASSOCIATION AXE VALLEY BRANCH

BEFORE the talk there was a branch-saving annual general meeting.

Hands-on chairman Dr David Westlake had previously written to members that he and most of his committee were ready for retirement, so volunteers were needed if the branch was to continue.

At the meeting he received a warm vote of thanks for his 12 years of keeping the branch together and agreed to continue as acting chairman until a new leader was selected. Enough volunteers came forward and a new committee was elected. This comprises Secretary Jo Connor, Treasurer Dr Michael Barr, Programme Secretary Brian Denham and Reporter Mary Jones.

The 2016-17 season will start on October 19th and continue at Colyton's Peace Memorial Pavilion on the third Wednesday each month.

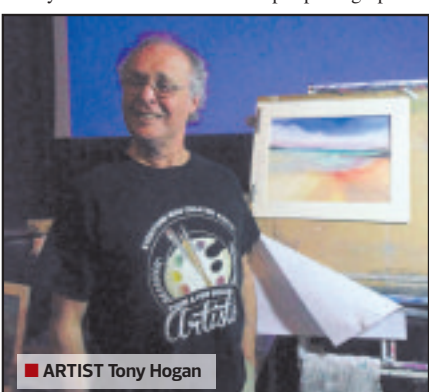

Demonstration by Yorkshire artist

SEATON AND DISTRICT ART SOCIETY

ON Monday, March 1st members were entertained by gregarious Yorkshire artist Tony Hogan, who now lives and works in Cornwall.

Tony was born in Bradford, the second youngest of twelve children, raised by their widowed mother who encouraged him to study art. At 15, he went to Bradford School of Art, and then became a carpet fitter.

Tony used a Cornish seascape photograph to demonstrate his preferred medium of pastel. He likes to work outside but compromised for the demonstration.

His pastels are not the familiar chalk-stick type, but round and flat, arranged like water colours in a plastic tray.

Unlike water colour, they are applied with a soffit, like a small window-cleaner's sponge on a stick, available from art shops. The soffit is rubbed on the pastel and then applied to the paper, picking up two or three colours at once for blending. It can be wiped off with paper towel.

Tony thinks a limited palette works best; six or seven at most. Block in the big areas first and then switch to pastel pencils for tighter work and detail, but light to dark or dark to light doesn't matter, there is no right or wrong. And remember to protect the area already done with a sheet of paper, or it will smudge.

Use a Stanley knife to sharpen and after using the pencil, always put it back where it came from – don't waste time searching for a missing colour in a great heap.

The finished masterpiece does not need to be fixed, Pan Pastels do not smudge. But if fixing is preferred, invest in fine art spray, never use hairspray – do not ruin a good picture for the sake of saving £2.

Merriott couple lose 11 stones

MARTIN and Michelle Rowswell from Merriot, have lost a staggering 11 stones between them.

Martin was a diabetic with 6 1/2 stone to lose, was at serious risk with his health and about to be started on insulin injections as opposed to the tablets he was already taking to control his diabetes. Obesity is one of the greatest risk factors for type 2 diabetes accounting for 80 - 85% of the overall risk and people whose weight places them at high risk of diabetes can reduce their risk of developing the condition by 58% by losing just 7% of their body weight (Diabetes UK Statistics 2014)

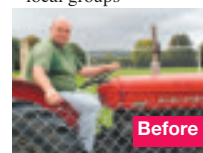

Martin, who works for the local Council doing household cleaning in institutions such as local Schools, decided to take his health seriously and went along to his local Slimming World group, along with his wife, Michelle. Michelle who works part time as a waitress, also wanted to lose weight and support Martin in the process so they both attended the Crewkerne Friday morning group together. "We found the group to be so welcoming and friendly and soon felt part of our new Slimming World 'family' where members support each other, help each other with interesting food ideas and encourage each other to slim one day and one week at a time". Martin and Michelle were losing weight successfully every single week and soon slimmed their way to 6 1/2 stones lighter (Martin) and 4 1/2 stones lighter (Michelle)

Martin and Michelle have 2 young daughters and were concerned that their girls also ate healthily. Martin says "The great news was, that the food is so family friendly that no one would ever know that we were slimming as it is normal, family food that everyone can enjoy . Michelle loves to cook but also to make quick and easy meals of which the lovely Slimming World cookbooks, Magazine and online recipes are full of. Some family favourites are potato, ham and leek hash, curry and rice, cottage pie, and macaroni cheese. We can still enjoy the occasional packet of crisps without any guilt". "It really isn't like a diet at all, I have never felt hungry or deprived, I have slimmed my way to my target weight and the whole family are healthier now. We even enjoy going on walks together without any difficulty, and without getting breathless." Michelle says "Before I lost the weight I felt down and fed up, I couldn't wear the clothes I wanted to but once we found the group, I felt encouraged every step of the way on my weight loss journey by my Consultant, Julie, and the other members and staying to group every week helped me achieve the success I enjoy today. Family and friends have noticed the difference in us both since losing the weight and we have encouraged others to come along to group to achieve their dreams too."

Martin's GP is delighted with his achievement and Martin has now come off some of his diabetic medication, with no need to start insulin injections. Martin says "It has been great to fit the advice from my Diabetes Care Team into Slimming World's eating plan and that the weight loss has had such a dramatic affect on my health and energy levels. I am certainly grateful that Michelle and I found Slimming World when we did and would strongly recommend anyone needing help with weight loss to come along to their local Slimming World group to find out more."

Our Friday morning group is changing to a 9.30am Monday mornings at the George Reynolds Centre from Monday 28th March and Julie looks forward to meeting you. Julie also runs 5.00pm & 7.00pm groups on Monday evenings. Anyone wishing to find out more about the Crewkerne Slimming World groups or any others can contact Julie on 07946 043473 or visit www.slimmingworld.com for other local groups

THE newly formed CHG South West has opened its doors for business, providing the local area with Plumbing, Heating, Electrical, Renewables and Water Services.

Headed up by Directors Ashley Chant, John Hunt and Robin Goodfellow, CHG South West are providing local employment to a strong team of 49. The ethos and goals of this new Company are to keep the business on a sustainable level, by providing a select variety of services that complement each other, and by being true to what the Directors and team excel at, which is first class customer service and standards in their fields of expertise.

The CHG South West's team of operatives are all accredited and are specialists in all forms of domestic and commercial plumbing and heating, including emergency call outs, annual servicing and installations. Happy to attend to anything from a leaking tap to a brand new heating or bathroom installation. The electrical team are a focused and well trained team of experts, and work closely with all the divisions within the Company, covering a range of works from annual certifications, PAT testing and rewiring. The renewables division focus solely on servicing and installing ground and air source heat pumps, solar thermal and PV installations, as these are the forms of renewable technologies at present which are most financially beneficial for their customers. The water services division is an extra bonus for all CHG South West Customers, as they can provide a range of services including water softeners (a must in this hard water area and for prolonging the life of your heating system), legionella compliance and treatment of private water supplies.

In addition to all of the above, CHG South West offer their customers a peace of mind monthly Service Plan, with three levels of plan available to cover their central heating system, all with a guaranteed 24 hour call out. Prices start from £8.03 per month.

An Apprenticeship Academy is something that the Directors would like to focus on over the coming years. Recruiting young and enthusiastic team members, in all divisions, and training them up to meet CHGs exacting standards will be the key to the longevity of the business. It will also provide further employment to the local community and will breed an ethos of loyalty and progression throughout the Company.

Richard Smith from Bridport Chamber of Commerce comments, "It is great to see a new Company launching with such an impact on local employment, with high aspirations and clear goals for their future. New Companies such as this have a positive knock on effect to the local economy and I wish CHG South West all the best for their future"

The Company has a clear vision for their future, to ensure job security for their hardworking team and to maintain a loyal customer base. With the support that they have already received from the workforce and general public, they feel confident that their vision can be achieved.

Freewheelers benefit from breakfast

A CHARITY business breakfast raised about £300 for Devon Freewheelers.

Scott Rowe Solicitors in Axminster held the event at Cranberries Hideaway in Kilming-ton on Wednesday, March 23rd.

Devon Freewheelers is a charity based in Honiton providing what is known as a blood bike service to the NHS with the help of volunteers.

There are times when blood, or other medical items need to be transported urgently because a patient's life is at risk, which is where blood bikes are very useful as they can respond quickly and move with ease through busy traffic.

■ TOP TABLE: Freewheelers Daniel Lavery and Russell Roe (both in green) tuck in Founder Daniel Lavery and fellow freewheeler Russell Roe attended the breakfast and put their bike on display outside the venue.

Mr Lavery gave a brief presentation of the organization as guests tucked in to breakfast.

"On arrival crews confirmed that the fire involved a wood burning stove.

"The incident was dealt with from the grate, using chimney gear and a thermal image camera."

Hotel design fails to impress

Image by ARCH-E-TECH

■ PREMIER Inn's recent planning application has been met with general approval locally and with great enthusiasm and relief by the PODES team, hopefully marking the end of McCarthy & Stone's involvement with the site.

Our only disappointment, albeit a serious one, is the proposed design of the hotel which we feel does not maximise the opportunity to enhance Seaton's role as a visitor destination, nor encourage more and longer stay visits to the town.

Here [pictured] is the proposed elevation to Harbour Road. This would be OK in an airport location, but not for a town trying to re-establish itself as a tourist destination.

The town deserves something that reflects the site's prominence and importance at one of the primary gateways to the town centre, in the same way that the proposed Axe Riverside scheme has been designed to impress visitors arriving from the Axmouth direction.

Premier Inn can build impressive hotels, an example being their much-admired Exmouth seafront hotel which opened last year. Surely a building like this, with 'wow' factor, would project the right image for Seaton too.

We know that the town council wishes not to hinder a swift resolution to the application, as there is an urgent need to support the visitor appeal of Seaton Jurassic. In our view however, there would not be any serious consequence of a delay, because there is no prospect of a new hotel opening until at least the last quarter of 2017, even without changes to the current design.

There should be no problem re-designing and building a new hotel for completion before Easter 2018, which Premier Inn, the town and future generations can be proud of.

ROB HEARD,

Avoidable saga

■ THE saga of Honiton Town Council and Councillor Dr Taylor (Pulman's View From Honiton, March 15th) is an absolute tragedy and one which should never have been allowed to even begin.

The start point was a 55-page report produced by EDDC. This was abysmally written, in that the cause of the problem was omitted, even though this was very much worse than the effect. The report was full of 'hearsay', the investigators' opinion – which is not required – and irrelevant guff.

Had the report been written as a 'Summary of Evidence' and in accordance with the 'Rules of Evidence' then the result would have been four pages and a one-page exhibit. This would have shown the cause of the problem to have been very much worse than the effect.

Then this whole sorry saga would have never even have got started let alone degenerated into the present sad state.

R NIX,
Honiton

Independent?

■ IN her rather bizarre letter in this paper, Claire Wright seems to suggest that she doesn't have any political principles or beliefs as she is an independent.

I'm not sure that Cllr Wright understands that one does not need to be a member or supporter of a political party to have political convictions. It would be especially strange for somebody in politics not to believe in anything at all – as Cllr Wright claims is her position.

It is my belief that Cllr Wright is being a little disingenuous. She, like the vast majority of us, has political principles I'm certain – but they are way to the left of the average East Devon voter.

SARAH WEEKS,
Ottery St Mary

A nation of litterers?

■ I WOULD very much like to applaud and echo the sentiments expressed in Hilary Arnold's recent letter. Wherever you go in East Devon you seem to encounter large quantities of litter and if it isn't bottles, cans or food wrappers it's larger amounts of fly-tipped builders waste.

If you cross over the water to France or Spain you don't see very much rubbish there.

Is there some ingrained anti-social and philistine streak in the English character that predisposes us to chuck litter around with such cavalier abandon?

ROBERT BOWMAN,
Whimble

Dogs not the problem

■ PULMAN'S View from Seaton & Beer reported the letter from Dr Joe Pitt, who set out clear and cogent arguments for opposing potential changes to Dog Control Orders. These changes are yet another restriction on Seaton's dog owners.

We already have enough restrictions on when and where we can walk to exercise with our dogs.

As a responsible dog owner and someone who values walking for my health, I wish to fully support Dr Pitt's comments.

In addition, I would like to make some personal observations.

First, the problem of dog fouling on the beach will not be solved by putting leads on the dogs of responsible local residents walking along East Walk.

I know many of the local dog owners personally, and my observation is that dog-fouling is caused by (a) people visiting Seaton to take advantage of our lovely long esplanade and beach who do not pick up after their dogs and (b) irresponsible dog owners who allow their dogs to wander without supervision early in the morning or late at night, again not picking up after their dogs.

These are the real problems which need to be tackled, perhaps by amendments to the dog-warden's schedules and training, further education, and better location of dog bins.

I also think there is a greater danger to the safety of Seaton's elderly residents whilst walking along the esplanade which is caused by uncontrolled and unsupervised wheeled "vehicles".

My observations during the recent half-term holiday were that our esplanade has become a dangerous playground for roller-skates, scooters, skate-boards, tricycles and the new motorised personal transport, mainly children and teenagers and often unsupervised by parents.

The general banning of cycling along the esplanade is now out-of-date and inadequate to protect pedestrians and disabled people who may be walking with sticks or driving their buggies.

I have also observed that people are cycling and skating in other areas like Cliff View Gardens which is equally dangerous to pedestrians as well as causing costly damage to grass and pathways.

I would urge both the Town Council and the District Council to consider this important safety issue well before the busy tourist season starts and a serious accident occurs.

KEN GORF,
Seaton

Hard-working hospital workers

■ RECENTLY I had to spend some time in the RD&E Hospital, Wonford, where I received nothing but first class treatment and care from everybody from doctors right down to the ward cleaners, not forgetting the paramedics who took me in.

All I can say is a very big thank you to one and all.

My family and I wish to say we fully support the junior doctors in their dispute with the government, especially Jeremy Hunt. First of all, doctors have to do extensive training for at least five years before they qualify as junior doctors. The studying doesn't stop there, as they become general dog-bodies, getting very little sleep or meal breaks whilst treating patients and studying for more exams.

Not for them the big bonuses or second homes that bankers or fat cat bosses get. Nor the privileges or expense accounts that MPs seem to get. They can't even afford a first home.

Doctors work hard beyond their duty hours for very little thanks or reward. If you go into hospital having suffered a heart attack or having been involved in an accident just as they're going off duty, they don't say 'sorry, I'm going home' – no, they turn around, roll their sleeves up and do their utmost to save your life.

It would not hurt Jeremy Hunt or any other faceless wonder in government to take their coats off, roll up their sleeves and do a 12 hour shift in busy hospital – especially an A&E department on a Saturday night.

They then might realise what work junior doctors and other health staff do: from paramedics right up to hospital consultants, often without sleep or proper meal breaks. So, come on, Jeremy Hunt – give them a break and treat them like human beings.

MA ROCHE,
Colyford

Help Your Horse

OUR philosophy after many years involved in Equestrian sports and horse management and especially in the saddlery business is very simple.

Horse owners need to take more responsibility for the suitability and comfort of their equine's tack.

Just as the stable management and the daily horse care is mastered by the aspiring horse owner so should the fitting of the saddle and bridle and any other equipment used.

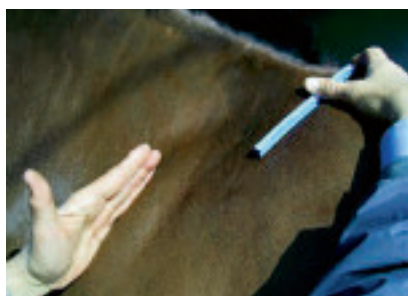

Professional saddle fitters and saddlers are expensive and they are in the business of selling and promoting new saddles however your saddle should be very regularly checked and the fit re assessed frequently. Horses can have numerous seasonal and developmental changes and you may not be able to afford a new saddle every few months!

With this in mind we have created a range of saddles which can be quickly and inexpensively altered to suit your horse's needs as you go along.

We also have a local saddle fitting service available to help you start off with continuing help and guidance online to keep you on the right track.

Learn how to measure and keep track of your horse's size and shape and to make sure that your horse has a comfortable saddle at all times without breaking the bank.

Honiton Cat Protection

HONITON Cats Protection is pleased to support National Pet Month, which promotes responsible pet ownership – something we agree with wholeheartedly! Their 'Top Ten Tips for Responsible Pet Ownership' tie in with our rehoming procedures.

All the cats and kittens we rehome have a veterinary check when they arrive to identify and resolve any medical problems. They are neutered, treated for fleas and worms and micro-chipped. Whilst they stay with us we ensure they receive the food and grooming they need and we do our best to get to know them, so that they can be matched to the most suitable home for them. When they go to their new home they have four weeks free insurance, which can easily be continued by the new owners to cover those unexpected costs.

Whilst we have an adoption fee, our costs generally exceed this and so we rely on income generated from the shop on Honiton High Street to help pay for all the essentials. As part of National Pet Month perhaps you might drop in to find out about becoming a volunteer or simply bring in some good quality items for use to sell. We look forward to seeing you this month, or at any time of year!

Caring for your pet rabbit

Flystrike

Flystrike occurs normally during warmer weather. It is caused by flies that land on rabbits and lay eggs. It almost always starts around the rabbit's bottom as flies are attracted to faeces. The fly eggs very quickly hatch into maggots and the maggots eat the rabbit's skin and causing tissue damage and if not found in time, shock will soon follow. Badly affected rabbits may have to be put down.

To prevent flystrike: Remove all soiled bedding daily; ensure your rabbit is not being overfed, as this can result in diarrhoea, leading to a dirty bottom. Check your rabbit twice daily to ensure that it is clean and dry and disinfect the hutch every week. Rearguard can also be applied to your rabbit and can protect against flystrike for up to 10 weeks!

Internal and external parasites

Worms are not generally an issue in rabbits; however a protozoan called E. Cuniculi. E.Cuniculi is a parasite that lives in the brain, eye or kidney tissue and can be fatal. Symptoms include: head tilted to one side, balance problems, incontinence and weak back legs. It can be treated with Panacur Rabbit oral paste for 28 days, but response depends on duration and severity of infection.

Rabbits like cats and dog can also harbour parasites. Cheyletiella mites are responsible for a scurfy coat or 'walking dandruff' in rabbits. Fleas can live on rabbits too and can spread the disease myxomatosis. Ear mites are also common in rabbits which cause uncomfortable scabs to form in the ear canal.

Vaccinations

Rabbits can become affected by two infectious diseases: Viral Haemorrhagic Disease (VHD) and Myxomatosis, both of which can be fatal. Vaccinations can be given for these diseases at 8 weeks old and is advised they are repeated every 12 months. VHD is a virus spread by saliva and nasal secretions; passed from rabbit to rabbit or via people, clothing or objects. Signs include blood stains from nose or mouth, high temperature, internal bleeding which can lead to liver failure.

Myxomatosis is a virus passed on via fleas, mites, flies and contact between rabbits, and sometimes in the hay if not sterilised. Symptoms include: puffy face, ears or eyes, fever and blindness. Sadly most rabbits die within 10-14 days.

Neutering

Neutering is recommended for all pet rabbits, not being used for breeding. Neutering reduces fighting between rabbits, avoids unwanted pregnancies and prevents womb cancer in females. 80% of females by the age of 8 develop womb cancer. Rabbits can be neutered from the age of 16 weeks

Barking Mad

IT'S well known that we are a nation of dog lovers and that's the reason why local pet business owner Lucy Mumford is celebrating this April during National Pet Month. Her venture goes from strength to strength in Exeter, Mid and East Devon organising dog holidays for our region's best friends.

Now in its 27th year, National Pet Month offers the nation a chance to celebrate the wonderful impact pets have on our lives and this year will focus on the Top 10 Tips for Responsible Pet Ownership, reminding us of how important it is for us to provide the very best levels of care for our pets.

Barking Mad is the UK's leading dog sitting company, organising dog holidays as an alternative to kennels and recently hit the top spot on the independent review site TrustPilot. Over 600 delighted customers have left glowing 5* reviews following truly excellent customer service for their pampered pooches.

Lucy said, "We are delighted to be involved as not only does National Pet Month promote responsible pet ownership, but it encourages pet friendly businesses, groups and individuals to raise the industry's profile and the benefits of pets. In fact, we are looking to recruit new dog sitting hosts as we expand".

The Barking Mad system works to match dog lovers, often active retired people, with a furry pal on a temporary dog holiday (as an alternative to kennels). Looking after dog gives many a lifeline and purpose, which they might not have had otherwise. Host dog sitters benefit from the proven medical advantages exercising and looking after a dog can have.

COTLEY POINT

SATURDAY, APRIL

COTLEY FARM, CHARD,

THE GRAND NATIONAL,
WATCH HERE ON

WHAT NEXT FOR THE COTLEY POINT-TO-POINT?

TWO years ago the Cotley Point-to-Point staged 4 Camel races under the glorious March sunshine, we made the front page of the Daily Telegraph and were even featured in the Mumbai Times. The Races were for charity and together with the Cotley Hunt Hedgelaying competition a total of over £5000 was raised for the Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance.

Last year under some less than glorious March weather we staged four cob/heavy Horse races. These races were kindly sponsored by Bluewave Construction Ltd, Albert Goodman Accountants, Porter Dodson Solicitors and King's School Taunton. All the competitors raised money and in total over £4,500 was presented to the two chosen charities, being Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance and Hospiscare.

This year we have one charity race, kindly sponsored by Barley-mows Farm Shop. It is a team relay race with one member running approximately 1 mile round ½ of the racecourse to hand over to a Horse and Jockey who will gallop around the whole racecourse circuit to finish in front of the crowd after a 1.5 mile gallop. May the best team win. The entries are causing a stir amongst the locals with some big bragging rites at stake.

There is also a best "turned out" prize at stake, however with a difference; The category is now called "the best 8 legs", kindly sponsored by Ian Lawrence Plumbing and Heating Engineer.

The charity race is due to start at 12.30pm with the first of the main Point-to-Point races starting at 1.30pm.

The charities chosen this year are St. Margaret's Hospice and the Beacon Centre, Musgrove Park.

THE COTLEY HUNT, SUPPORTING OUR COMMUNITY

Rural Communities by their nature are very fragmented but it is important, especially when farming prices are at a bottom, that people do not feel on their own. To many the local Hunt is part of the fabric of the countryside which knits people together. The Cotley Hunt is a family run pack and all of those involved in the running of the pack are keen to help the community by putting on social events (like the Skittles League, Dances, Dinners and Lunches) which in turn supports local businesses.

Last year the Point to Point managed to raise funds to help support Hospiscare, which gives high quality care and dedicated support for people in Mid and East Devon with a potentially terminal diagnosis. At least two of our Supporters' Families had reason to use Hospiscare and it was great that the Point to Point was able to help them financially in return.

Similarly this year we are trying to help the Somerset equivalent of Hospiscare by raising funds for St. Margaret's and the Beacon Centre/S.U.R.E. Both charities have been used by Supporters' families and we would like to say thank you to both charities for the way that they have helped our friends through their difficult times.

"S.U.R.E. has donated over £1.8M worth of equipment to the Beacon Centre at Musgrove Park Hospital in Taunton and continues to provide vital radiotherapy equipment to maintain a 'cutting edge' status in the world of cancer treatment. The current primary project is a replacement Big Bore CT Scanner/Simulator for the Beacon Centre which will include 'up to date' improvements and additional facilities particularly for cancer patients with metal joints. Our target is to raise £500k by 2017 for this machine."

"St. Margaret's is a charity - they are not part of the NHS. It costs £10m per year to run their service. After NHS funding they still need to raise £7.5m to deliver their care. They care for people with any life-limiting illness - not just cancer. They support families and carers as well as patients. 1 in 3 people in Somerset will need their support in their lifetime. Last year St. Margaret's cared for 3,200 people. The majority of people are cared for in their own homes. Over 1,200 volunteers help them care for people at the end of their lives. 1 in 5 of their patients receive care, thanks to gifts in wills. St. Margaret's strives to provide palliative care to all who need it within their defined population area, being at the heart of our community and responding to patients' personal preferences and needs. They strive to deliver high quality holistic and accessible care."

Clinical Hypnotherapy

IBS • anxiety • stress • phobias • sleep problems • weight loss

Free consultations with Free hypnosis CD

We all want to make changes in our lives from time to time, but sometimes it's not that easy to make those changes on your own, is it? Whether you want to lose weight, stop smoking, sleep better, feel more confident or overcome a phobia, hypnotherapy can help.

Hypnotherapy is a safe, enjoyable and proven therapy that often brings rapid results. It can help to build your motivation, overcome negative beliefs and thoughts holding you back, release old habits and limitations, enabling you to achieve the goals you're aiming for in life.

Samantha Davey, a registered hypnotherapist, clears up a common misconception when she says that clients maintain control throughout hypnosis. She says, "No one can be made to do or say anything against their will and you'll automatically reject any suggestions that don't feel right for you." She continues, "People are often surprised that hypnosis feels quite ordinary – just like sitting relaxing with your eyes closed or daydreaming. Most people find it a very relaxing, calming and up-lifting experience."

Samantha offers a friendly, professional and supportive service in Seaton and Axminster. To book a free consultation, call or email

Fab Four bring their Beatles tribute to Beer

ONE of Britain's best tribute bands will be playing at the Mariners Hall, Beer, next week (Saturday, April 16th).

The Fab Beatles have developed a huge following since they were formed in 1991 and have played all over the world, from Moscow to Madrid, Berlin to... Beer!

And it is not just regular music fans of the original Fab Four who love the Fab Beatles.

"The Fab Beatles are truly fab and I know because I saw the other lot," said TV presenter Michael Parkinson, while Jonathon Ross declared: "I think the Fab Beatles were excellent and definitely the best."

And there was also a ringing endorsement from Stan Parkes, who is a first cousin to the great John Lennon: "I must say that their presentation of The Beatles is excellent. In fact, I could quite believe that I was actually listening to The Beatles".

The Fab Beatles show starts with early Hamburg material and goes right through all the singles and album tracks to Let It Be and the break-up, with a repertoire that is second to none.

It is not just the music that is top class either. The group also pride themselves on professionalism and attention to detail and it is accepted that the Fab's sound is the closest you will ever hear to the originals.

The Fab Beatles use only authentic instruments and costume and can now boast to have the very drum-kit Ringo used on The Beatles 1964 American tour.

The Fab Beatles played in Beer last year and were such a big hit that the clamour to get them back was irresistible – and the fact that they are helping raise money to fund the running of the precious Mariners Hall village community facility is a massive bonus.

Tickets cost £10 in advance and are on sale from Beer Village Stores or call Liz Fahey on 01297 22797. Doors open at 7.30pm and tickets will also be available on the evening costing £12.

The Art of Rhythm

GUITARIST and composer Ant Law is back on tour this Spring performing new trio music as well as favourites from his critically acclaimed album Zero Sum World and debut Entanglement. Matt Ridley joins him on double bass and the drum chair is split between Asaf Sirkis and Dave Hamblett.

Over the last decade Law has established himself as a significant compositional talent with an unorthodox yet original guitar approach working in new improvisation-focused music. He studied at Edinburgh University and Berklee College of Music and now lives in London regularly performing with renowned musicians such as Tim Garland, Jason Rebello and Paul Riley. Law is a pioneer in the 'Perfect Fourths' tuning system for guitarists and is a published author on the subject.

Ant Law plays at Blue Vanguard Jazz Club, Gipsy Hill Hotel, Exeter (EX1 3RN) on Thursday, April 28th. Tickets are £10 (£8 students on production of valid ID). Advanced booking is advisable, and tickets are available from bluevanguard.co.uk.

Psychic Vibration on the Medium Wave

Don't miss this emotional rollercoaster ride of an evening – a night to remember

EX-HAIRDRESSER Steve Holbrook, regarded by many as one of the UK's top Clairvoyant Mediums, is visiting locally very shortly, and he explains how he hears the voices of our loved ones that have passed away. His ability started from behind the salon chair, and he now visits Theatres and Hotels around the country, and as far as the Caribbean, demonstrating his unique ability to act as a telephone exchange between this world and the Spirit world.

Steve says that he was always aware from being a child that life existed beyond the grave, when he awoke to find five soldiers marching through his bedroom, but could only see the top half of them floating through the room. "This was very unnerving experience but it was to give me an early glimpse of what was to come, and now it's as natural as breathing to me"

Steve started work in Leeds city centre in a busy hairdressing salon, and feels that the years he spent behind the chair, having that personal contact with the customers, stimulated this rare, yet natural ability to hear the voices of spirits. People used to come in and book for their hair cut, and often got more than they bargained for when he passed on a message from their loved one. Steve was always the busiest stylist, and had a 6 week waiting list if people didn't re-book immediately, and says "I often wonder if they kept coming back for my ability as a hair stylist, or the possibility that they might receive a message from a relative who had passed away!"

He now gives messages of re-assurance to people who have lost their loved ones, and by communicating with them, helps them understand that life continues, just simply in a different dimension. One lady's mum came through to her in one of Steve's messages, and said to the daughter "don't forget the brown Prada handbag on Friday". The lady replied "I'm putting it in my mums coffin on Friday, she only died 5 days ago". Who would know this information?

One of Steve's best friends is the multi-talented Jane MacDonald, singer and co-presenter on ITV's Loose Women. Steve met Jane in a Spiritualist Church many years ago, and predicted she would be on BBC TV as part of a cruise entertainment documentary. She didn't believe it, but the year after it came true, and she was the star of The Cruise, the first docu-soap, and she had the biggest selling debut album of all time. She has dedicated her auto-biography to Steve, calling him her inspiration and guru, and can't thank him enough for being there when she needs guidance.

Steve has three books out, 'Light in the Darkness', 'Out of this World', and 'Survival', and these all offer a true insight into the day-to-day life of a working medium. Steve's beliefs on many areas of Spiritualism, and a great background in to Steve's life.

Steve has raised tens of thousands of pounds for charities over the years, £50000 for his local hospice in Wakefield, £5000 for MacMillan Support, and most recently our current total for PACT – a charity that helps terminally ill children and their parents across the country – is almost £21000. He is dedicated to raising funds and awareness for this charity.

Exciting cellist Amy Jolly to play Concerts in the West shows

CONCERTS IN THE WEST is delighted to welcome the exciting young cellist Amy Jolly, who together with pianist Gemma Beeson, will be making exhilarating music at venues in Ilminster and Lyme Regis later this month.

A recent graduate of the Halle/RNCM String Leadership Diploma at the Royal Northern College of Music, Amy Jolly won the 2014 Charles Halle Award and is currently undertaking postgraduate studies at Stavanger University of Music, Norway.

She graduated with distinction from the MA programme at the Royal Academy of Music, achieving a DipRAM for an outstanding final recital and received the Rhoda Butt Award for achievement and contribution to the Academy.

Amy was the first ever instrumentalist to win the Royal Warrant Holders Aldeburgh Bursary in 2013, leading to a performance at the Coronation Festival at Buckingham Palace. Amy performs with the BBC National Orchestra of Wales, BBC Philharmonic, Birmingham Royal Ballet and Opera North. She is also a member of the award-winning Scarlet Trio and FeMusa, Britain's only all-female string orchestra.

Accompanying Amy in both concerts, will be award winning pianist Gemma Beeson, who has performed around the world as a soloist, accompanist and chamber musician. Gemma is a graduate of the Royal Northern College of Music and Guildhall School of Music and Drama, where she excelled in competitions including the Michael Harding International Piano Competition, Hastings Concerto Competition and the Intercollegiate Beethoven Competition.

Since graduating, Gemma has worked as an accompanist and music coach at a number of schools including Wells Cathedral School and Chetham's School of Music. She is currently a staff pianist at the Royal Northern College of Music and at Leeds College of Music. Gemma has made several recordings and live broadcasts of contemporary music for the BBC and has recently performed at the Wigmore, Cadogan and Bridgewater Halls.

Concerts in the West founder and director Catherine Hodgson, said: "Amy Jolly is an astonishing young cellist, with an incredible musical presence. Her interpretations are passionate and soulful with a depth of intensity that is impressive for someone who is after all still studying her craft. She is complemented beautifully by Gemma Beeson and together they make compelling listening. I cannot recommend these performances enough."

Amy Jolly and Gemma Beeson perform at Ilminster Arts Centre on Friday, April 22nd at 8pm (a pre-concert supper available at 7pm - advanced booking required £13). Tickets are £15, to book call 01460 55783 or visit www.themeetinghouse.org.uk.

IT'S OUR second anniversary and what better way to celebrate than by having Devon's finest folk duo, 'Show of Hands' playing the Beehive for the opening night of their 'Long Way Home' UK tour tonight! Needless to say, it's sold out and we are all very excited to have Phil Beer and Steve Knightley playing here.

A great selection of gigs and home grown talent in local shows, seem to be going from strength to strength at the Beehive, as sell out shows for Peter Pan and Kiss your love Goodbye have demonstrated. We now eagerly await Honiton Theatre Company's 'Twelfth Night' in May which will kick start our Shakespeare celebrations.

Meanwhile we have some fab shows and movies to look forward to, next weekend we have 'Glorilla' a brilliant spoof comedy show, check out the trailer on the website these girls are seriously good!

Brie Larson won an Oscar for her performance in the life affirming movie 'Room' which we are screening this Friday and next week George Clooney and Josh Brolin star in the Coen brothers' Hail Caesar!

Come and hear 'Rusty Shackles' fabulous 6 piece band, on Sat 16th April, their hi energy live performance with intelligent, catchy lyrics will make for a great gig, don't miss them.

For something completely different we have the 2 day Festival of Imagination with interesting talks and activities based on the theme of Structure this year, there is something for everyone and very worthwhile coming along for a look. On the Friday evening we will be showing the 2004 Pacino version of The Merchant of Venice and on Saturday 23rd we have the hilarious family friendly, 'When Magic & Science Collide' show by the amazing Oliver Meech. (it's quite mind blowing, believe me and kids and adults will love it)

Our Nostalgic cinema on April 28th is the wonderful 'Some like it hot' with Marilyn Monroe, Jack Lemmon and Tony Curtis and our Friday film is 'Joy'

We end April with the first of an exciting season of concerts as a part of the Honiton Festival-Conjunto Gringo playing Latin & Cuban jazz, this wonderful octet is led by Bristol's best known jazz trumpeter, Andy Hague. Guaranteed to make you want to dance!

Plans are afoot for a celebration of Shakespeare's life and works at the Beehive with several events through May and June culminating with the Branagh Live screening of Romeo and Juliet with Richard Madden and Lily James as the star crossed lovers on Thursday 7th July and the Bristol Old Vic theatre school production of 'A Midsummer Night's Dream' on June 17th. Along with Police Dog Hogan and Henning Wehn, tickets will go quickly for these shows, so book now and enjoy!

Boulting's take on 'Bikeology'

The brand new show featuring the face of ITV's Tour de France coverage, Ned Boulting, starts off with a preview date at the Marine Theatre ahead of UK-wide tour.

JOURNALIST, television presenter and best-selling author Ned Boulting presents for the first time an honest, self-effacing walk through the world of Bikeology.

What drives the cyclist (apart from a sturdy, well-oiled chain) to such ecstasies of endurance? What curious, deep-rooted passions are aroused by the sight of a simple pair of padded shorts? And what on earth is a derailleur?

From the humble commuter to the winner of the Tour de France, Boulting takes an off-centre look at what it means to ride a bike, drawing on his own underwhelming adventures in the saddle to his fourteen summers spent hurtling around France in pursuit of the sport's biggest name including no less than Cavendish, Wiggin, Froome and of course Armstrong.

A breakneck descent through the history of the sport followed by a lung-bursting climb into the present day - all two-wheeled life is here.

Keep your wits about you and be ready to compete in the ultimate test of bicycle maintenance against Olympian gold-medallists Sir Chris Hoy, Chris Boardman and perhaps a few others...

Ned Boulting's Bikeology work-in-progress show comes to the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis this Friday, April 8th at 8pm. Tickets are £10, available from www.marinetheatre.com, or call Lyme Regis TIC on 01297 442138.

Mark's not here

MULTI-AWARD winning comedy star Mark Watson returns with the highly anticipated follow-up to his hugely successful show Flaws. In 2016 Watson goes on an incredible 69-date tour with his new show I'm Not Here.

A seemingly minor problem at an airport forms the starting point of the show, which spirals into an examination of identity in the digital age and a search for meaning in our lives; luckily with an enormous number of jokes, as well as Watson's customary flailing, chaotic audience interactions and all sorts of other fun.

As one of the most decorated performers on the UK comedy scene Mark Watson was nominated for Best Newcomer at the 2005 Perrier Awards, before being awarded the 2006 if.comedy Panel Prize. He took home the Time Out Critics Choice Award in 2006 and has been nominated for a Barry Award from the Melbourne Comedy Festival.

Mark Watson was the star of Dave TV's Road to Rio, as well as the host of BBC 4's We Need Answers. He has also regularly appeared on BBC 2's Never Mind The Buzzcocks, and Mock the Week, BBC 1's Would I Lie To You and Have I Got News For You, and Dave's Argumental. He has performed stand-up on BBC 1's Live At The Apollo, Michael McIntyre's Comedy Roadshow and Channel 4's Comedy Gala.

As well as his TV work Mark has had a number of critically acclaimed radio shows, including his BBC Radio 4 series Mark Watson Makes The World Substantially Better, Mark Watson's Live Address To The Nation and Mark Watson Talks A Bit About Life, as well as 100 Million or Bust on BBC Radio 5 Live, where he is also a regular contributor to Fight Talk.

Mark Watson brings the 'I'm Not Here' tour to Exeter Corn Exchange on Sunday, April 10th (visit the website at www.exeter.gov.uk/cornexchange or call 01392 665866), and The Octagon Theatre, Yeovil on Friday, April 22nd (www.octagon-theatre.co.uk, 01935 422884).

Ferocious and feel-good

These Dogs have a bark worse than their bite

WITH the release of their new album "From Without", the raw energy and passion you'd expect from Ferocious Dog is ever-present.

Creating their own take on Traditional Celtic folk, Ferocious Dog takes the traditional instruments; fiddles, whistles, mandolins and mixes them up with a bit of, raw, buzz sawrock n' roll attitude. With their unique, aggressive yet feel-good music they tear up venues across the country often bringing their faithful Hell Hounds along for the ride.

Their guitarist is Les Carter of the Unstoppable Sex Machine fame (frequently shortened to Carter USM). Carter USM headlined Glastonbury's Pyramid Stage in 1992.

Ferocious Dog play at Exeter Phoenix this Friday, April 8th, doors from 8pm. Tickets are £13.50 available from the box office on 01392 667080.

Rogues on the Road

DIRECT from the Edinburgh Festival Fringe, Blowers and Backers are back with Rogues on the Road - a brand new show crammed full of even more wonderful (and occasionally outrageous) reminiscences and anecdotes from two extensive careers spent broadcasting around the globe.

Bastions of the beloved Test Match Special with over 80 years in the commentary box and touring the world with the programme between them, Henry and Peter have some tales to tell. And the fun, the games and outlandish characters spread well beyond the confines of any cricket ground or studio.

This is a completely fresh set of outrageous stories.

Blofeld & Baxter: Rogues on the Road comes to the Marine Theatre this Thursday, April 7th at 8pm (bar open from 7pm). Tickets are £18, or £15 concessions, available from www.marinetheatre.com, or from the Lyme Regis TIC (01297 442138).

Critically-acclaimed jazz quartet at the Arts Centre

THERE'S a treat in store for jazz fans this month at Ilminster Arts Centre. The Sam Crockatt Quartet comprises four of the most in-demand, creative young jazz musicians in London and they will be bringing their unique brand of contemporary jazz to the Arts Centre on Saturday, April 23rd.

Led by saxophonist Sam Crockatt, the band features Kit Downes on piano, Oli Hayhurst on bass and Ben Reynolds on drums. Each member of the group has a strong individual voice that blends to form a cohesive, swirling band sound equally at home on Crockatt's originals as on jazz standards. Their music is lyrical, free and light of touch, but never loses sight of the melody. The band's first album, 'Howeird', won album of the year in the Parliamentary Jazz Awards 2009; their latest 'Mells Bells' takes its inspiration from Crockatt's home village in Somerset.

Helen Mayhew of Jazz FM has praised their performances as being "full of power and invention, delivered with precision, poise, and grace" while John Fordham of the Guardian relished their "haunting lyricism". The Quartet's Ilminster date offers local audiences an exciting chance to see for themselves a band that that has been attracting considerable critical acclaim. Advance booking recommended.

The Sam Crockatt Quartet play at Ilminster Arts Centre on Saturday, April 23rd at 8pm. Tickets are £14, and a pre-show supper is available for £13 from 7pm, but must be booked in advance. For more details or to book call 01460 54973 or visit www.meetinghouse.org.uk

Everything buzzing at the Honey Farm

THE weather is finally showing us its good side and after a frustrating winter with the outdoor jobs held up because of the rain, we are all raring to go!

The Honey Farm is now a veritable hive of activity. Our lovely bees have survived the winter remarkably well and are now venturing out seeking early pollen to raise their young. Well done if you've got crocuses, daffodils, primroses, and grape hyacinths in your garden; our girls will be sure to be paying you a visit.

Our beekeepers, Dan & Ken have been joined this year by Magda who trained at the outstanding Polish Beekeeping College, the only one of its kind left in Europe. They have all been out checking on the hives, making sure all is well in anticipation of an amazing beekeeping year ahead (beekeepers are all optimists!)

New planting continues in the pollinator gardens, the shop is stocked with enticing gifts and the tea-room goodies are being freshly prepared so make sure you visit us soon. By popular request we have extended our opening times to include Thursdays, giving more people the chance to visit. We look forward to seeing you all.

Pulman's Property View

WHAT'S NEXT FOR THE HOUSING MARKET?

WE'RE BARELY INTO 2016 AND ALREADY HOUSE PRICES HAVE LEAPT TO NEW HIGHS...

THE average value of a UK home hit a record high of £292,000 in January after increasing by 7.9% annually, according to the Office for National Statistics (ONS).

Meanwhile, property website Rightmove has reported that the average price tag on a property coming to market across England and Wales has passed the £300,000 mark for the first time.

The struggle for people to get on the housing ladder has also been laid bare.

The ONS figures also show that a first-time buyer faces paying 7.7% more for a property in the UK than they did a year earlier, with the average price paid for a starter home standing at £222,000 in January 2016.

And another report, from estate agent Hamptons International, found it would take a single first-time buyer 13-and-a-half years to build a big enough deposit for a home, while couples face a wait of three-and-a-half years.

That report, which covered England and Wales, assumed someone would need to raise a 15% deposit to buy a home. It also assumed aspiring buyers were working full-time and saving 22% of their income towards a deposit after paying essential bills.

So with the UK housing market already on full steam ahead for 2016, what's next in the coming months?

Well, one of the reasons behind the strong activity seen so far in 2016 is thought to be a stamp duty increase for people buying second homes, such as buy-to-let investors, in England, Wales and Northern Ireland.

The increase has just kicked in, as of April 1, so its full effects are yet to be seen.

The three percentage point increase on previous stamp duty rates for this sector of the market was announced by the UK Government towards the end of 2015, and there have been signs of investors rushing to complete sales before the deadline.

In Scotland, stamp duty land tax (SDLT) has been replaced by the land and buildings transaction Tax (LBTT).

However, similar tax hikes on the purchase of additional homes such as second homes or buy-to-let properties have also been introduced in Scotland, as of April 1, with the intention being to avoid any potential distortions in Scotland that could arise from the stamp duty increase in the rest of the UK.

Various suggestions have been put forward as to the impact the tax hikes might have on the market.

Some experts believe the extra costs will be passed on by landlords to rental sector tenants in the form of higher rents.

A report from the Association of Residential Letting Agents (ARLA) found that nearly two thirds (63%) of letting agents predict the supply of buy-to-let properties will now start to fall as landlords are pushed out of the market, and nearly six in 10 (57%) believe rents will be pushed up.

By Vicky Shaw, Press Association

But the coming months could also present an opportunity for first-time buyers, who can find themselves competing for the same property types that investors also go for.

Simon Rubinsohn, chief economist at the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors (RICS), says the pace of house growth could start to "slacken" if demand from buy-to-let investors shrinks a bit in the coming months.

He says there have been signs of buy-to-let investors and people buying holiday homes looking to accelerate their plans. This means some sales that may otherwise have taken place later in the year have now been brought forward.

However, an array of schemes designed to help people move onto or up the housing ladder may fill any gaps left by a drift off in demand from investors.

Rubinsohn says that with various Government schemes such as Help to Buy upping the demand from buyers, it is hard to predict the impact of the stamp duty hike.

He says: "We're going to see sales activity continue to move ahead but it's going to be a bit harder to build up the numbers. First-time buyers may find the landscape a bit more favourable."

WHAT IS THE NEW FLOOD RE SCHEME?

FLOOD RE is a new insurance scheme to help households in higher-risk areas get access to more affordable cover and a wide choice of policies.

Launching on April 4, the scheme works with insurance companies so that people who own and live in properties that are most likely to flood can shop around more easily to find policies with more affordable premiums and excesses. It is hoped that the increased competition will help drive down premiums for those affected.

The scheme will help people who buy buildings or contents insurance for properties that are at risk of flooding, providing they own and live in them.

It is estimated that, over time, around 350,000 UK households could benefit from Flood Re. Consumers will not need to deal with the scheme directly and will still buy their insurance as usual.

The Association of British Insurers (ABI) says some insurers will be contacting customers directly to tell them about how Flood Re can make a difference.

Consumers can also call their insurer to find out if they can offer new options. The ABI says it is also a good idea to shop around, as the existence of Flood Re should, over time, mean more choice of affordable flood cover, even for those at high flood risk.

SPOTLIGHT

SPOTLIGHT ON MY SERVICE

Nick Mitton Garden Services

I was brought up in Chard having attended Holyrood School. I left the area in 1986 and moved to the Channel Islands. There I worked as a full time Fire Fighter at the local Fire Station. Working shifts enabled me to start my own Gardening business. This then led to full time gardening in 2005.

My partner Suzanne and I decided to move back to Somerset last year, as all of our children have now grown up and are living in the UK.

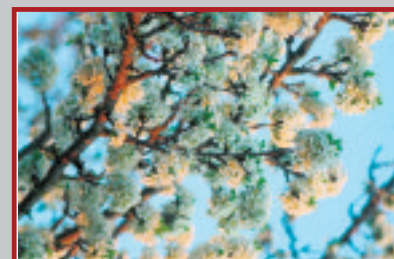

For potential customers, I can offer a straight forward garden maintenance service. This would include: Mowing, strimming, borders, pruning, power washing and hedge cutting, etc.

We also remove and dispose your garden waste as included as part of our service.

We promise an honest, reliable and professional service and can provide references if required from previous satisfied customers.

If following the last few months of wet weather, your garden is starting to appear like a rugged marshland, we can help you get it ready for the Spring and Summer. Let me help you get your garden Barbeque and party ready!

We offer a highly competitive rate of £15.00 per hour, please do not hesitate to give me a call on: 07811910153 or 01460 391427

New Alfa Romeo Giulietta now on sale in the UK

The new Alfa Romeo Giulietta has gone on sale in the UK today with revised styling, enhanced specification, new technology, a simplified range structure and a new engine and transmission combination to meet the evolving demands of the premium hatch-back buyer.

The new front-end styling comprises a striking new honeycomb grille, piano black bumper inserts (with red highlights on sporty models) and revised headlamp and fog lamp surrounds. The new look is complemented by new Alfa Romeo and Giulietta badge designs, new alloy wheels, revised tail pipes and new colours (Alfa White and Lipari Grey), while the interior benefits from revised seat upholsteries and dashboard/door panel finishes, a new trip computer display and a Uconnect infotainment system now with smartphone-enabled LIVE services including music streaming with Deezer and Tuneln, news from Reuters, Facebook and Twitter check in, ecoDrive and myCar services and traffic updates for navigation-equipped models.

Under the bonnet there's now the option of combining the 120hp 1.6-litre JTDM-2turbo diesel engine with the ALFA TCT twin dry-clutch transmission. Employing second-generation MultiJet technology with a variable-geometry turbo charger, this engine produces 120hp at 3,750rpm and an impressive 320Nm of torque from just 1,7450 rpm and, when paired with

Alfa Romeo's quick-shifting and smooth ALFA TCT transmission, it can be used as a full automatic (with its responsiveness and shift patterns adjusted via the three-mode Alfa D.N.A. drive selector, along with the power steering assistance, ESC and Q2 electronic differential settings and throttle and brake responsiveness) or as a full manual, either by slotting the gear selector into its sequential gate or by using the standard steering wheel paddle shifters.

This engine and transmission combination has a top speed of 121mph and can accelerate from 0 to 62mph in 10.2 seconds, while its official combined cycle fuel-economy and emissions figures matches those of the manual version, returning 74.3 MPG (3.8 l/100 km) and producing just 99 g/km of CO2.

In the UK, the new Alfa Romeo Giulietta's model range features five trim levels: Giulietta, Giulietta Super, Giulietta Tecnica, Giulietta Speciale and Giulietta Veloce. The entry-level Giulietta now benefits from burnished headlamp surrounds, satin-finish door handles and new oblique tailpipes, while inside there are new grey and black fabric seats with Alfa Romeo logo on the head restraints, new matte black dashboard insert and luxury floor mats.

The Giulietta Super trim level adds dual-zone automatic climate control, cruise control, a front armrest, new 16-inch alloy wheels, front fog lights, rear parking sensors, rear air vents and upgraded seat upholstery and while the engine range comprises the 120hp 1.6-litre JTDM-2turbo diesel (manual or Alfa TCT), 150hp 1.4-litre Turbo Petrol, 150hp 2.0-litre JTDM-2turbo diesel, 170hp 1.4-litre Turbo Petrol ALFA TCT and 175hp 2.0-litre JTDM-2turbo diesel TCT. Prices for the Super range start at £19,300 OTR (1.6-litre JTDM-2120hp).

A new Lusso pack can be added to the Super model to enhance the elegant look of the car and includes a 17-inch alloy wheel upgrade, sports leather upholstery, a rear armrest with third rear headrest, aluminium kick plates, electric lumbar support on both front seats, a height adjustable passenger seat and the 6.5-inch Uconnect Live system with voice-operated satellite navigation and 3D mapping. The Lusso pack is priced at £2,650.

The new Giulietta Tecnica replaces the fleet-oriented Business Edition and again includes the 6.5-inch Uconnect infotainment system with navigation as standard (albeit with more features), along with the Visibility Pack (automatic lights and wipers, electro-chromatic rear view mirror and electrically folding door mirrors), electric lumbar support on both front seats, a height adjustable passenger seat, front and rear parking sensors and a no-cost choice of pastel and metallic paint finishes. New 16-inch wheels, rear privacy glass and side skirts are additional features over the outgoing Business Edition. The available engine range includes the 120hp 1.6-litre JTDM-2turbo diesel (manual and ALFA TCT), 150hp 2.0-litre JTDM-2turbo diesel and 175hp 2.0-litre JTDM-2turbo diesel ALFA TCT. Prices for the Alfa Romeo Giulietta Tecnica start at just £19,250 OTR (120hp 1.6-litre JTDM-2).

The Giulietta Speciale offers customers the option of combining the sporty look and feel of the high performance Veloce version with a broad selection of engines.

Standard equipment includes a sports suspension; sports bumpers with red Alfa profile; classic, five-hole, 18-inch alloy wheels; Brembo brakes with red, four-piston callipers; new carbon-look headlamp surrounds; an anthracite finish on the mirror caps, door handles, grille and fog light surrounds and the 6.5-inch Uconnect LIVE system with navigation. Prices for the Alfa Romeo Giulietta Speciale start at £24,240 OTR (150hp 1.4 Turbo Petrol MultiAir).

Fabric and Alcantara sports seats, aluminium pedals, a flat-bottom sports steering wheel with red stitching and the carbon-look dashboard surrounds and door panels complete the comprehensive Speciale package and engine choices include the 150hp 1.4-litre Turbo Petrol, 150hp 2.0-litre JTDM-2turbo diesel, 170hp 1.4-litre Turbo Petrol ALFA TCT and 175hp 2.0-litre JTDM-2turbo diesel ALFA TCT.

Finally, the new Giulietta Veloce tops the revised line-up and in terms of equipment is similar to the Speciale but with stylish new 18-inch alloy wheels, specific sports suspension tuning, oversized tailpipes and, of course, the most powerful engine in the Giulietta range – the 240hp 1750 Turbo Petrol engine combined with a specially calibrated TCT transmission. Prices for the Alfa Romeo Giulietta Veloce start at £28,480 OTR.

The new Alfa Romeo Giulietta goes on sale on April 1 with prices starting from just £18,450 OTR.

Peugeot expands appeal of 208 with XS special edition

PEUGEOT is introducing a new limited-run special edition of the hugely popular, award-winning 208 hatchback. The new '208 XS' brings an additional trim level to the already extensive range and is arriving in UK showrooms soon, with enhanced personalisation and increased desirability.

Available with one of the most efficient engines in its segment – the 1.2-litre PureTech 82hp petrol engine – the 208 XS comes in both three and five door body styles and builds on the Active model's impressive specification. The 208 XS model features 16" alloy wheels, front fog lights, exterior personalisation and white paint as standard.

The special XS edition is limited to just 2,000 vehicles and brings additional personalisation to the package for as little as £100 more versus a 208 Active taken in Bianca White. Those lucky enough to order the 208 XS have a choice of five colours and two exterior personalisation packs. Bianca White, Nera Black metallic or the Ice Silver textured paint come with the Lime Yellow exterior pack. Virtual Blue and Orange Power metallic come with the Menthol White exterior pack.

These five colours were chosen specifically to complement the exclusive personalisation available on the 208 XS variant. This includes 16" Technical Grey Titane alloy wheels, Equaliser grille with gloss black surround, gloss black door mirrors with coloured accents in Menthol White or Lime Yellow and Fog light finishers. To further distinguish the XS from other variants, XS badging is present on both front wings.

The PEUGEOT i-Cockpit® is unique to the brand and embodies the driving characteristics of the PEUGEOT 208, being agile, intuitive and safe. The compact sports steering wheel offers precise steering and improved manoeuvrability while the 7" multifunction colour touch screen puts all the functionality at the driver's fingertips. Plus the raised instrument panel allows all driver information to be accessed without taking the eyes off the road.

As well as the additional standard equipment, all 208 XS models also benefit from: 7" multifunction colour touchscreen with Carplay®, DAB radio, Bluetooth and USB, Cruise control with speed limiter and air-conditioning.

The PEUGEOT 208 XS is available to order now, priced from just £13,495 and is available, from age 18, through PEUGEOT's innovative 'Just Add Fuel®' package, which provides drivers with a single monthly payment for all the major motoring costs: comprehensive motor insurance, road fund licence, vehicle servicing, roadside assistance and warranty all in a three-year finance package.

Order books opening for Volkswagen's rugged new Beetle Dune

▲ The new Volkswagen Beetle Dune

THE Volkswagen Beetle is renowned as an automotive style icon with, perhaps, the most well-known silhouette of any modern car. Original Beetles have been modified in small numbers over the years to suit specialist drivers' requirements and among the most famous of these are the 'Baja Bugs' vividly associated with west coast America.

Now the spirit of those original conversions is rekindled in the modern Beetle range with the UK showroom debut of the exciting new Beetle Dune. Engineered and styled to pay tribute to those off-road heroes, and with a ride height raised 10 mm compared with the standard car, the Beetle Dune is designed to offer a vibrant new dimension to the existing Beetle line-up.

Available to order from 5 April through the Volkswagen UK Retailer network, the Beetle Dune's rugged looks are enhanced via 18-inch 'Mythos' alloy wheels, front and rear wheelarch extensions and bold new bumper designs.

Beetle Dune customers have a choice of Coupe or Cabriolet versions and deliveries of both will begin in June, while a selection of five body colours complement the car's eye-catching styling. The Sandstorm Yellow metallic and Dark Bronze metallic, in particular, have been developed exclusively for the Beetle Dune. Other colour options include Deep Black pearlescent, Black (non-metallic) and Pure White (non-metallic). Parts of the dash and door panels also share the exterior body colour.

Indeed, styling inside and out helps the new car stand out from the crowd. Its adventurous character is emphasised by a large silver-framed central air inlet and a black honeycomb grille. In profile, the black wheel well and body extensions contrast with the eye-catching paint colours. In addition, black side trim strips – stylised 'Beetle running boards' – and 'Dune' badging underscore the dynamic image of the latest Beetle. At the rear, a large spoiler and new LED lights create a futuristic look.

Inside, extensive use of contrast 'Turmeric' stitching on the sport seats, leather-trimmed steering wheel and parking brake grip help define the new Dune while contrasting areas of the seat system, door trim panels, roof pillars and headlining are finished in black.

The generously equipped new Beetle Dune is based on the existing Beetle's Design trim level which means a comprehensive selection of technology and creature comforts as standard. Among the highlights is the Composition Media system which includes 6.5-inch touch-screen with Bluetooth telephone connection, DAB digital radio receiver, dash-mounted single CD player, MDI (Multi Device Interface) via USB connection, SMS messaging functionality and eight speakers. Standard-fit technology also includes a Light and Sight pack comprising auto dimming rear-view mirror, automatic headlights and rain sensing wipers, while convenience is enhanced by ultrasonic parking sensors front and rear.

A multifunction leather steering wheel with decorative 'Dune' insert and contrast 'Turmeric' stitching, leather-clad handbrake with contrast stitching and carpet mats front and rear with 'Turmeric' contrast stitching continue the Dune's bespoke look. 'Climatic' semi-automatic air conditioning keeps things comfortably cool inside.

Safety is enhanced via ABS (Anti-lock Braking System) and Electronic Stability Control (ESC) fitted as standard and the Beetle Dune Cabriolet has rollover protection. In addition, all Beetles have Isofix child seat preparation for two rear child seats, tyre pressure loss indicator and a comprehensive suite of airbags.

The Beetle Dune is powered by a choice of two engines. The 1.2-litre petrol TSI engine develops 105 PS and is available with either a six-speed manual or seven-speed DSG gearbox. With both options, the hatch model accelerates from 0 to 62 mph in 11.3 seconds. The 2.0-litre TDI develops 150 PS and comes with a choice of six-speed manual or six-speed auto DSG gearboxes and, in the hatch version, reaches 62 mph in 9.2 seconds. Top speeds, where legal, vary from 110 mph for the petrol manual to 124 mph for the diesel manual.

Fuel economy ranges from 51.4 mpg (combined) for the 1.2 TSI manual to 62.8 mpg (combined) for the 2.0 TDI manual while CO2 emissions range from 117 g/km to 127 g/km depending on engine and gearbox choice.

Today's production Beetle Dune was presented to the world as a concept car at the Detroit Motor Show in 2014. The concept's off-road interpretation of the classic Beetle design attracted global interest, and was itself a highly successful development of an earlier concept car revealed in Los Angeles in 2000.

The petrol-engined new Beetle Dune costs from £21,300 (RRP OTR), and the diesel version is offered from £23,805 (RRP OTR). For more details please visit www.volkswagen.co.uk.

ŠKODA targets executive expansion with new A+ SUV

ŠKODA will further strengthen its appeal among senior level company car drivers when its first A+ SUV is introduced, new research confirms.

Unveiled at the Geneva International Motor Show, the VisionS concept car gave the world a strong steer on ŠKODA's hotly-anticipated new large SUV and was met with rave reviews, particularly for its "sleek, chiselled and elegant" styling.

When the production version is revealed later in 2016, it will excite company bosses across the UK, after an in-depth study of the fleet market by ŠKODA revealed that director-level company car drivers (39%) are more than twice as likely to choose SUVs than their more junior counterparts (19%).

With SUVs now the biggest-selling model of car in Europe, growing by around 25% last year in the UK, ŠKODA's next major line-up addition looks set to draw in even more customers.

Henry Williams, Head of Fleet for ŠKODA UK, commented: "We had a record year of fleet sales in 2015, with the all-new Superb proving a major hit for its outstanding design, technology, practicality and value for money. This complemented the existing popularity of our other models such as the Octavia.

"However, the new A+ SUV – which will take cues from the VisionS concept car – sees ŠKODA enter an entirely different vehicle category. We can't say much more about its pricing or specification, but I can promise that it will give fleet decision makers and company car drivers a great product with 1st class whole life costs."

The Subaru Forester has been upgraded for 2016 to ensure the model maintains its status as one of the most capable and versatile SUVs in its class. The 2016 model-year upgrades to the Subaru Forester – the Japanese manufacturer's bestselling model in the UK – result in improved safety, convenience, comfort and refinement.

The upgraded Subaru Forester will go on sale across the brand's UK dealer network next month. Pricing remains unchanged for all trim levels in the updated Forester line-up, with the range starting from £25,495 (on-the-road) for the 2.0i XE model and £26,995 for best-selling 2.0D XC models.

Every Forester is equipped with two core Subaru technologies: Symmetrical All-Wheel-Drive, affording surefootedness in all conditions; and the latest-generation four-cylinder 'Boxer' engines, contributing to the low centre of gravity beneficial to balance, road holding and handling.

Upgrades to exterior and interior styling

The 2016 Subaru Forester has had an exterior and interior refresh. At the front of the car, the Forester's distinctive hexagonal grille has been updated with a new 'wing' motif grille mesh, while the front bumper has been reshaped and now features new L-shaped chrome trim adding greater visual volume to the lower part of the Forester's 'face'. The change is designed to emphasise the car's relatively low centre of gravity, wide stance and innate stability.

The wraparound headlamps – retaining Subaru's signature 'hawk-eye' shape – feature a new black base paint finish for a sharper appearance. The 2016 model is also fitted with new LED combination lamps at the rear.

Inside the cabin, new materials and technologies have been introduced to further modernise the interior and introduce a higher-quality look and feel, while still retaining the functionality for which the Forester is renowned.

The interior is finished with a higher proportion of soft-touch materials, new piano black and metallic trim, higher-resolution TFT displays and new cloth and leather upholstery options – including a new brown leather option. Following the adoption of Subaru's new 7.0-inch touchscreen infotainment and navigation system in 2015, the changes to the 2016 Subaru Forester are designed to further improve the quality look and feel of the cabin.

Greater ride comfort and more confidence-inspiring handling

The 2016 Subaru Forester features a range of modifications to improve ride quality and agility, and ensure greater refinement for passengers.

Updated suspension settings at the front and rear ensure the car remains comfortable and refined, particularly over broken or choppy surfaces, while the adoption of a new steering gearbox quickens the steering ratio (from 15.5:1 to 14.0:1) to improve reactions to steering inputs.

The range of engines remains unchanged for the 2016 Forester; buyers can choose from three 2.0-litre horizontally-opposed four-cylinder engines – a 150 PS naturally-aspirated 2.0i petrol engine and a 147 PS 2.0D turbo-diesel unit from Subaru's FB family of engines, and a 241 PS direct injection turbocharged (DIT) petrol unit, engineered for high power, responsiveness and efficiency.

A six-speed manual transmission is fitted as standard to 2.0i and 2.0D models, with an optional Lineartronic CVT automatic transmission. Lineartronic is standard on XT models, equipped with the 241 PS DIT petrol engine.

In uneven or slippery road conditions, the all-terrain capability of the standard Symmetrical All-Wheel-Drive is enhanced further with the X-Mode on Lineartronic CVT models, a control system which includes Hill Descent Control and makes traction even better than the outgoing model's.

Successful weekend for upbeat Vikings

Uptonery reserves clinch first league title – in form Farway United up to second

MIDWEEK RESULTS

Monday, March 28th

JOSH FRENCH waded in with five goals as SEATON TOWN thrashed Heavitree United 8-3 on their own Wingfield Park turf. Jacob Rowe, Kyle Gould and an OG completed the goal haul for the Greens who racked up their biggest Devon & Exeter League Premier Division win for more than five seasons.

Saturday, April 2nd

SW PENINSULA D1(E)

AXMINSTER TOWN 2 GALMPTON 2
AXMINSTER Town's wait for a home win at Tiger Way in 2016 continues after an insipid first-half display put them on the back foot against visitors Galmpton United.

Galmpton deservedly led 2-0 at the interval but MoM Gary Spiller struck twice for the second time in seven days, including a superb 85th minute free kick to grab a point for Ax.

Tigers: Sc Wells–Burr, M.Smale, B.Clay, E.Dyer, M.Scott (Capt), L.Cleal, G.Spiller, N.Warren, C.Garrett, L.Finn, O.Latas. Subs: T.Pinder, B.Turner, J.Urquart.

Axminster are due to entertain Sidmouth Town in an east Devon derby clash tomorrow (Wednesday, 7.30pm ko).

BOVEY TRACEY 1 SIDMOUTH TOWN 3
SIDMOUTH Town travelled to Bovey in confident mood as they looked to extend their recent unbeaten record.

But it was the hosts who so nearly took the lead in the 3rd minute when a rasping shot was palmed away to safety by the visitors' custodian Dec Lines.

Lines was tested on two further occasions but his positioning was exceptional allowing him to make two terrific saves.

At the other end, the star of the show was young keeper Adam Seedhouse who made save after save to the frustration of Sidmouth's Vere who on another day could have scored four goals before half-time.

Sidmouth increased the tempo in the second half and Seedhouse was finally beaten on the hour when Vere beat the offside trap raced past the on rushing keeper and slotted home his 20th goal of the season.

Sidmouth went in search of the second and found it from an unlikely source 10 minutes later when defender Jamie Newbery crowned off a MoM performance by heading home his second senior goal from Ben Farrington's corner.

Vere went on to miss some glorious chances, but managed to wrap the game up on the 75th minute, again calmly placing past Seedhouse after good work from Swinger.

A handball in the 82nd minute by Anthony Griffiths allowed Dan Taylor to restore some pride for the home side from the penalty spot.

Vikings: Lines, Binion, Newbery, Griffiths, White, Swinger, Farrington, Davies (Capt), Green, Vere, Orchard. Used Subs: Cox, Forsyth, Gosse.

BEER ALBION 0 HONITON TOWN 3

BEER Albion were outgunned 3-0 by a strong Honiton side on Saturday at the Furzebrake writes Richard Honnor.

Honiton took the lead after nine minutes and were 2-0 up after 14.

the Fishermen believed that they had got themselves back in the game two minutes later when a loose ball was poked into the net. The referee appeared to award the goal by pointing to the centre spot but then changed his mind and awarded a free kick to Honiton for an infringement after seemingly being swayed by strong protestations by the away side.

The second half was a repeat of the first with Honiton dominating.

To their credit, the Fishermen's defence held out but went 3-0 down on 60 minutes.

Correy Couch, Darren Witt and Jack Knight netted for Honiton.

Whilst there can be no argument about the result the Fishermen's cause was not helped by some lenient refereeing of cynical infringements.

Next Saturday Beer entertain Elmore at the Furzebrake. Kick-off is at 3pm and the match sponsor is Beer Village Stores.

Whipton & Pinhoe 3

Millwey Rise 0

MILLWEY thought they had gained an early advantage on Saturday as Levi Hoole's header hit the inside of the goalpost the crossbar and appeared to cross the goal line, not once but twice, as the defenders attempted to clear it. But the referee and linesman said they ball hadn't crossed the line and the hosts survived.

After this Millwey exerted a lot of early pressure with Sam Burke's skimming the crossbar.

But the hosts took the lead in 25th minute when an underfended header found the back of the net.

After half time Tyler Warren's shot grazed the crossbar and Simon Smith struck the upright.

The home side's third goal came courtesy of the bar and the upright. A dead ringer for the 'goal' Millwey scored and was not given in the opening minutes

D&E round up by Collin Goodwin

FENITON completed a memorable treble against Premier leaders NEW TOWN to keep the title race alive.

Fenny are the only side to beat Newtown in the League this season and added to their East Devon cup triumph in October, have become a real jinx to Town.

All their goals in Saturday's 3-1 came in the first half from Danny Lewis (2) and manager Ben Ede.

scoring, which helped them close the gap, and TOPSHAM TOWN won by the same score-line at SEATON TOWN with Luke Walsley scoring twice and Aaron Street once.

ELMORE bounced back from their disappointment at missing out on a County final by beating HEAVITREE UNITED 4-0.

HATHERLEIGH TOWN accounted for CHARD TOWN 4-0, and EXWICK VILLA defeat struggling BOW AAC 3-0 with Brad Cook 2 and Levi Edwardson scoring.

WILLAND ROVERS and CLYST VALLEY shared the points with a 1-1 draw at Silver Street.

UPTOTTERY held Division One leaders EXMOUTH AMATEURS to a 0-0.

Strugglers WITHERIDGE enjoyed a rare success beating SIDMOUTH 5-2. Mike Stamp and Joe Miller had the Vikings' goals.

Division Two leaders HENRY'S CRONIES had a tougher than usual ask against NEW TOWN but eventually won 2-0 with Martin Tyrer and Danny Pym scoring.

In Division Three AXMOUTH hit six at NEWTON POPPLEFORD.

Having led with a Darryl Berner goal Division Five favourites UPLWMAN conceded twice in the last few minutes to lose 2-1 to ALPHINGTON, which was a bonus for title rivals OTTERTON who won 4-0 at AWLISCOMBE goals from Kev Pitt 2, Adam Rolls and Si Tuley.

KENTISBEARE won the other big game due 2-1 at OTTERTY ST MARY. Jordan Rogers scored the Otters' consolation.

After losing their unbeaten record last week WHIPTON & PINHOE are back on song with a 3-0 win against MILLWEY RISE to step up their Division Six title ambitions.

Elsewhere, Brad Morris (4), Ryan Salter, Cobb White and an OG saw DUNKESWELL ROVERS crush lowly ILMINSTER TOWN 8-0.

Division Seven leaders CENTRAL stay ahead of the pack thanks to a 5-3 win against OFFWELL RANGERS, whose goals came from MoM Tom Cligg (2) and Steve Curry.

Meanwhile goals from Sam Pollard-Jones, Pete Peacock and Ricky Sargent earned LYME REGIS RESERVES a 3-1 win over SOUTH CHERITON at the Davey Fort.

UPTOTTERY are Division Nine champions. The village side won 4-2 at AXMINSTER TOWN to become the first side to lift a title. Reece Best and Jamie Tait scored the Ax consolations.

A Dave Bridges header couldn't save MILLWEY RISE RESERVES from a 3-1 defeat at AMORY GREEN who led 2-0 at half-time.

Youngsters Henry Mitchell and Jack Bennet made excellent contributions for Millwey.

Tight shoes time in bid to beat relegation

Weston-super-Mare 33 Chard 19

South West Division One

CHARD were forced to make at least six changes from the side that started last week against Teignmouth due to injuries, holidays and work commitments and one of these gave front row forward Benn Mainwaring his first start after a few appearances as a replacement.

Also back in the team was Nick Hyslop making his first appearance of the season.

The changes meant that Chard took some time to settle, particularly in the set pieces, and they were under a lot of pressure from the start from a Weston team who still have eyes on a play-off position.

Chard were under the cosh in the opening quarter but they kept in the game with some good defensive play, despite also having to contend with playing against a strong wind.

However, Chard buckled after 15 minutes when the hosts crossed for their first converted try. This was followed by Aaron Hunt being yellow carded for an illegal tackle, and from the resultant penalty Weston went over for try number two which again was converted.

Chard then went further behind when they were caught cold with two breakaway tries after having put the home side on the defensive. Both these tries were converted and Chard were now 28-0 down which did not reflect the pattern of play at all.

In the early minutes of the second half some powerful running from the home centres ended with try number four which this time was not converted.

At this point a really big defeat looked on the cards, but with Chad Northcott orchestrating things at fly half, Chard forced themselves back into the game.

Initially Matt Tinley finished off a good move to get the visitors on the scoreboard with an unconverted try. A few minutes later Weston were split apart defensively when Joe Massey crossed for try number two. Northcott converted, and with ten minutes to go he burst through and scored under the posts. He converted his own try and from 33-0 down Chard were now back to 33-19. They worked tirelessly in the last few minutes to try and get a fourth converted try which would have given them a losing point, and a try bonus point but it was not to be. Next Saturday Chard travel to Clevedon.

THE Chard 2nd xv have had a wretched season as far as results are concerned so this big bonus point win was a huge morale booster.

They were totally dominant and led from start to finish Keiran Sutherland (2), Jack Elliot (2), Connor Moon, Adrian Philip, Paul Wright and Luke Harker all touching down for tries. The conversions were shared around but a drop kick conversion from Moon was the highlight.

Next Saturday Chard 2nd xv are at home against Imperial.

Chard Colts 38 North Petherton 14

CHARD retained their place at the top of the league with this comfortable win against lowly North Petherton.

Chard started strongly and were 10-0 up early on with unconverted tries from Treble and Oaten.

Later in the half Oaten crossed for his second and Read added the fourth. Read converted both and Chard led 24-0 at half time.

The game had to go to uncontested scrums in the second half and Petherton took advantage of some indifferent Chard tackling to cross for a converted try of their own.

They doubled their score with a similar effort and these tries sparked Chard back into life.

Nicholls and Joe Mainwaring crossed for further tries and with Read converting both Chard ended with a comprehensive victory.

One more win from their final three games will ensure that Chard win the Somerset Colts league.

Next Saturday the team are at home to Minehead and this game will be played on the main ground with the 2nd xv playing at Crewkerne Road. Kick off will be 3pm.

HONITON with Judy Davy

FIVE Honiton runners ran the EASTER BUNNY 10K on Easter Monday, starting at Yeovilton.

Steve Selley led the Honiton runners home in 46.28 and 124th.

Jennie Sleeman followed in 52.51 and 205th (3rd in her age category based on chip time). Then came Nick Thorpe, in 57.07 and 253rd, Sandra Thorpe in 1.01.24 and 299th and Vanessa Glynn Jones in 1.15.12 and 356th.

The winner was Simon Nott of Calne running club in 33.20. There were 366 finishers.

Howard Bidmead took part in the ETON 10k at Windsor which is about the flattest run anywhere and therefore totally boring compared to running amongst the hills in Devon.

The base was at the beautiful Olympic rowing venue at Dorney Lake and there were three distances on offer; 5k, 10k and half marathon.

Howard opted for the 10k which was twice round the lake and finished in 45.44.

The course uses tarmac paths around the lake also used for cycling events. Howard was pleased he only had to run twice round saying he would have lost the will repeating the laps twice more and it is not a race he will be repeating!

CHARD ROAD RUNNERS

THE TAUNTON MARATHON is a challenging flatish run that offers a good time, and CRR's responded well with Bernie Genge running his 100th marathon chasing a London qualifying time.

A sound team performance, inspired by lead runner Bernie Genge, earned CRR's the team prize for the event.

Times; B.Genge 16th/03:14:46 (2nd age cat), R.McLean 20th/03:17:20 (PB), M.Holley 28th/03:21:28, P.Masters 29th/03:22:06 (2nd age cat), S.McLean 34th 03:26:49 (PB).

LUKE Reed ran the YEOVIL EASTER BUNNY last Monday and went well finishing 20th in 37:50. Josh Hopson was 46th, 41:16, another very good performance and William Watson 152nd, 48:30, 3rd Junior male.

Roger Bramley did the BATH HALF MARATHON at the end of March in an impressive time of 1:41. This was all part of his training schedule for the PARIS MARATHON on Sunday which was run in a steamy 21 deg. Roger managed to run a great time of 3 hours 49min.

Four AVR's made the trip to Reading last weekend to run in the READING HALF-MARATHON.

Billed as the fastest half-marathon in the UK, the mainly flat course made for some good times.

Jake Smith was the first of the AVR finishers coming 30th overall out of more than 14,000 finishers in 1:11:41.

Ollie Caute excelled in his first half-marathon finishing 318th in 1:25:17. Tony Smith was the next AVR, 1,157th, 1:37:16 and Sam Miller was delighted to break the 2 hour mark taking 1:59:16, the 4,916th finisher.

Cricket seniors slide to defeat in opening league match

HONITON with John Pawley

WHILST the very wet weather over Easter made it very heavy going, the sun did shine for the Ladies Medal competition on Wednesday.

With nine temporary greens in play the event was a non-qualifier.

In spite of the conditions there were several very good scores with Heather Clarke winning the Silver division with an excellent net 73 followed by Henrietta Bradshaw with a net 75. Bronze One winner was Chris Luttman with net 72 ahead of Cathy Uttley with a net 79.

Bronze Two winner was Jan Portlock with a net 82 on count-back from Di Wall.

Sixty-five Seniors played in a combined Stableford/Eclectic competition on Friday. Musical maestro Malcolm Matthews orchestrated an impressive win in Division One with 39pts, no doubt heading for a handicap cut.

In Division Two Phil Wall prevailed with 36pts, followed by Mike Sennitt with 35. Bob Cockett and Steve Blundell, came next alongside 'birthday boy' Garth Millard. There were three 2s; David Scott on the 4th after getting a birdie on the 3rd - John Chew also on the 4th and Brian Morrison on the 10th.

A rather dull Sunday morning greeted the men playing the Winter Sun-Am competition.

The last two pairings in the Final were Darren Morgan & Dan Handford pitched against Jon Marchant & Mike Drew.

As with all good finals the outcome was not clear even as they played the 18th.

It finally came down to a putt on the 18th where Marchant knocked in a tricky five footer to seal the victory and claim his first major trophy at the club in his 15 years of trying.

The rest of the men played a Stableford better-ball pairs competition for the consolation prize of the Sun-Am plate.

Winning Sunday's competition, but unable to claim the Sun-Am plate, as they were not originally paired together, were Ross Latham & Jason Lovering with a score of 42 ahead of Paul Borkowski and Ben Phillips - but only on count-back.

They collected the Sun-Am Plate being the highest placed finishers from all Sun-Am pairings. In third spot with 39 were the young pairing of Norman Runciman & Buzz Harris.

AXE CLIFF with Peter Motson

THE Mens section played their Easter Bowl competition, medal format, with Kevin Miller taking 1st place with a net score of 68. Second place was taken by Steven Anning with a net 72 and in 3rd was Stuart Mackie with a net 74. Jin Hong carded the only two.

The Ladies section played a Qualifying Competition for their Centenary Niblick which was played in stableford format.

First place was taken by Glenda Board with 34pts narrowly beating Sandra Walker (33) in 2nd. The 3rd place was taken withby Margaret Kenchington with 31.

The Seniors section played a Yellow Ball competition - yellow ball scoring double points and best two scores to count.

The winners were: D Lacey, B Graham & P Hornsby with 108 pts. Second place was won by D Weston, B Polley & T Strong with 105pts followed in 3rd place by K Wilson, G Turner & M Jamieson with 102.

Three twos were recorded by D Weston, T Strong and G Turner.

CRICKET St THOMAS with Bert Robinson

TWENTY seven Seniors entered the three-man Texas Scramble on Wednesday where the benign conditions contributed towards some good golf.

Three of the nine teams managed sub-par scores including an excellent gross 64 by Norman Markby, Colin Ireland & Rod Stevens who recorded 32 on both the front and the back nines.

Close behind with a gross two under par 68 were Alan Davis, Danny Dowgeel & Iain Rowland. Third place was claimed by Ian Fielder, Bert Robinson & Bob Dennett with one under par (69).

Meanwhile, 12 seniors travelled to play Axe Cliff in the first match of the season.

It didn't start too well with the opening pair losing their game. However, a recovery was made in games two and three with narrow wins for the Cricket side.

An exciting outcome was produced after games four and five were lost whereby the match could be saved with a win.

Roger Stone and Keith Branchflower had come back from three down to square the game before watching their opponents score a hole-in-one, followed by a birdie two on the final hole to win their game by two holes, enabling the Axe Cliff to triumph by 4-2.

Results: Nick Hill & Stuart Pope lost to Graham & Mant 5 & 4. Bob Barrow & Lindsey Gage beat Cox & Bruce by 2 holes. Alan Chance & Barrie Singleton beat Cook & Backhouse by 1 hole. Mike Hone & Bryan Frost lost to Grove & Ashbolt 5 & 4. John Pearce & Nobby Hodder lost to A. Morgan & L. Morgan by 2 holes. Roger Stone & Keith Branchflower lost to Hornsby & Polly by 2 holes.

The Seniors concluded their week on Friday with a three-man Bowmaker tournament. Of the 42 players only two managed a sub par round which was indicative of the adverse conditions.

Bryan Frost's 39 points helped his team to win the event by six points over their nearest rivals who, in turn were two better than the third placed team.

Result: 1st Bryan Frost (39); Nobby Hodder (31) & Bob Dennett (33) 103 points. 2nd Brian Anderson (35); Dick Hall (31) & Nick George (31) 97 points. 3rd George Willerton (30); Brian Marsh (34) & Roger Withers (31) 95 points.

Bird swoops for hat-trick

THERE was another excellent performance from Axminster Town U7s against BRIDPORT - our toughest opposition this season.

Fielding a strong team in the first half Ax led 4-1 with some excellent wide play from Ruben Baulch and captain Alfie Bird. Defensively George Manning covered a lot of ground when Bridport were on the break.

In the second half Ax mixed the team up but still finished 7-2 winners overall.

Ax scorers; Alfie Bird (3), Ruben Baulch (2), Kia Kemm and Jaiden Martin.

Saturday morning saw the last of the organised fixtures for the Axminster U8s.

As Twyford could only raise one team it gave the young Tigers a chance to play MILLWEY RISE.

Ax started well against their neighbours and found themselves 2-0 up at half time, both goals from Alex Dixon.

In the second half the Tigers defended brilliantly especially Jacob O' Hare. Millwey got one back but the final score was 2-1 to Axminster.

In the second game against TWYFORD coach Luke Reed rotated the squad throughout the game and, although the lads played well, they went down 3-1 with the consolation goal from Matthew Reed.

ON Saturday, members participated in a new competition for the Over 70s Cup which had recently been donated by member Pam Gregory.

Ten eligible players participated throughout the morning with everyone playing three games. All matches were fiercely and closely fought with the four highest scores going through to the semi finals and the winners to a final.

Ninety-year-old Lacon Noad played a tight game over 10 ends against John Lacey who was the ultimate winner 7-6.

The trophy was presented to John by Pam Gregory who was delighted with the standard of play throughout the contest proving that you are never too old to participate in this game.

This weekend also saw our Somerset Youth member Jack Bradley playing singles in the England under 18s near Derby. He won two of his first three matches and played in the quarter-finals.

Jack fought a valiant match against a player ranked 85th in the world but sadly lost 12-8 but he has been invited to trial for the England team in Tamworth on May 1st.

◆ FIRST WINNER: John Lacey receives 70s Cup from Pam Gregory.

Bird swoops for hat-trick

THERE was another excellent performance from Axminster Town U7s against BRIDPORT - our toughest opposition this season.

Fielding a strong team in the first half Ax led 4-1 with some excellent wide play from Ruben Baulch and captain Alfie Bird. Defensively George Manning covered a lot of ground when Bridport were on the break.

In the second half Ax mixed the team up but still finished 7-2 winners overall. Ax scorers; Alfie Bird (3), Ruben Baulch (2), Kia Kemm and Jaiden Martin.

Saturday morning saw the last of the organised fixtures for the Axminster U8s.

As Twyford could only raise one team it gave the young Tigers a chance to play MILLWEY RISE.

Ax started well against their neighbours and found themselves 2-0 up at half time, both goals from Alex Dixon.

In the second half the Tigers defended brilliantly especially Jacob O' Hare. Millwey got one back but the final score was 2-1 to Axminster.

In the second game against TWYFORD coach Luke Reed rotated the squad throughout the game and although the lads played well, they went down 3-1 with the consolation from Matthew Reed.
